Board Reports

Mr. Maleski stated he is meeting with Tracy next week.

Mrs. Neckers and Mrs. Stapels discussed about the Marketing Focus Group Meeting that they had about the Budget. They stated that they need to market that Clymer is one of the lowest school taxes in the area, they proposed to send out a “facts” mailer, attend town meetings, make a video, and market this information on social media. They stated that people have offered to donate funds to make a video. They stated that they are looking into the list of voters because the merger vote and budget vote were so different. They stated they plan to meet again in January.

Mr. Markham reviewed about the Christmas Concert and the Chorus leaving for NYC. Mr. Markham stated that the NHS went caroling at the Corry Manor. Mr. Markham discussed about the Holiday Dinner and Winter sports. Mr. Markham stated that Kent State reviewed a poem from Mrs. Brunco’s class and were impressed so they wrote a poem that will be published in a book. Mr. Markham stated that BOCES has interviewed another candidate for the school psychologist. Mr. Markham also stated that a memo went home about how the office was receiving too many phone calls for bus notes so requesting that only notes in writing that are received by noon will be allowed. Mr. Markham stated that the all call issue should be corrected. Mr. Markham discussed how a lot of damages to the Ipads and chromebooks have been happening. Mr. Markham proposed that only students 10-12th grades will be allowed to bring them home. Mr. Markham stated that this will change the way class assignments are handled. Mr. Markham stated that 5-9th grades have the most damage. Mr. Markham stated that maybe next year parents will need to purchase an insurance which will make them more responsible. Mr. Markham stated that Chromebooks can mostly be repaired in house but Ipads have to be sent out.

Mr. Bailey discussed about the Superintendent’s meeting he attended. Mr. Bailey discussed about “School Branding” What are we promising people-Why are we different-What are we know for? Mr. Bailey stated we need to “sell” our brands. Mr. Bailey stated that making cuts will “sell out” our brand. (FFA, FBLA, Chem, Physics) Mr. Bailey stated that we need to promote our brand. Mr. Bailey stated that on 1/28/19 there will be an in-service day. Mr. Bailey stated that there will be a “Less is More” Training, Vaping Presentation, Stop the Bleed and Literacy Work happening that day.
