1: Jointly Developed

(Describe/List how parents will be involved in the development of the school parent and family engagement plan and how parents will be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of parent and family engagement programs.)

NLRHS will continue a school-level parent advisory committee to create, monitor, and evaluate our parental involvement plan. The Action Team parental involvement committee will be chaired by our parent facilitator.
2: Annual Title I Meeting

(Describe/List when (provide the month/year or month/day/year) the school will hold the Annual Title I meeting to inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school’s participation as well as the parents’ rights to be involved. The Annual Title I meeting should not be used to ask for parent input, but provided as an opportunity to disseminate information and distribute copies of the revised parent and family engagement policy.)

The annual Title I Meeting will be held August 20, 2019.

3: Communications

(Describe/List how the parent and family engagement policy will be distributed to parents and how the school is going to communicate with parents including information about how the school will provide information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to parents in a format, to the extent practicable, and in a language that parents can understand.)

Parents will be informed at the September Parent/Teacher Conferences that a copy of the Parent & Family Engagement Plan is available for them or they may find it on the school website.
4: School-Parent Compact

(Describe/List the process the schools will follow to jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact.)

This compact will outline how parents, school staff, and students share the responsibility for improving student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high academic standards. All stakeholders will sign the compact at Parent/Teacher Conferences, September 19, 2019. The compact will be placed in the student's folder in the counselor's office.  Linda Harper

5: Reservation of Funds

(If the district receives more than $500,000 in Title I allocation, then it must reserve 1 percent for parent and family engagement activities. A minimum of 90% of that 1% must go to the schools, with priority given to high-need schools. If the school is allocated a percentage of the 1 percent, describe/list how the school will share with parents the budget for parent and family engagement activities and programs and how parents will be involved in providing input into how the funds are used.)

The funds will be used for parent and family engagement activities such as open house and parent teacher conferences. The budget will be shared with parents at the Title 1 meeting in September. Parents on the Parental Involvement Committee will help to decide how the funds should be allocated. If any other parents have suggestions about the funds, they may contact Sara Rozzell (rozzells@nlrsd.org).
6: Coordination of Services

(Describe/List how the district and/or school will coordinate with other organizations, businesses, and community partners to provide additional supports and resources to families.)

The school enables the formation of a Parent Teacher Association that fosters parental and community involvement within the school. J.T. Zakrewski is PTSA President.

To take advantage of community resources, the school will consider recruiting alumni from the school to create an alumni advisory committee to provide advice and guidance to help us with school improvement.

7: Building Capacity of Parents

(Describe/List activities, such as workshops, conferences, classes, online resources, Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings, and any equipment or other materials that may be necessary to support parents in helping their student’s academic success.)

To promote/support responsible childcare, the North Little Rock High School shall: Ensure that the school advertise the current selections of such books, magazines and other informative materials, Ensure that the school provide parents/guardians opportunities to borrow the books, magazines and other informative materials for review from the parent center.

The NLRSD encourages parents to use the free resources available on the Arkansas Department of Education website. Under the parent tab are several topics that parents may find of interest.

A parent facilitator, Sara Rozzell, (rozzells@nlrsd.org) is assigned by the Principal to serve in this capacity.

The NLRSD Parent-Student Handbook provides information in regards to the process for resolving parental concerns.

There will be a college and career fair and transition fair to help parents understand the choices for their students after graduation.

Parent Teacher Conference will be held September 19th and February 17th.
8: Building Capacity of School Staff

(Describe/List activities such as workshops, conferences, trainings, webinars, online resources, and Academic Parent-Teacher Team meetings that will be used with school staff to build their capacity to work with parents as equal partners. Describe/List methods of parents’ assistance for building staff capacity. Describe/List actions the school will take to provide other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities.)

Parent Teacher Conferences are September 19th and February 17th.
*2 hrs of PD for teachers and administrators will be rotated according to State requirement.
Teachers will work with the Parental Engagement Professionals, Julie Drake and Ginger Mitchell.

9: Building Capacity - Discretionary

The school parent and family engagement policy/plan may include additional sections describing other discretionary activities that the school, in meaningful consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build capacity.

Each different department has parent groups and community members that support their group or organization. There are parent groups and volunteers for the fine arts department, band, athletics, quiz bowl, etc. Parents may contact the individual responsible for those groups if they are looking to volunteer.
