MOTION CARRIED: 6-0

YES: Meents, Jones, Tankesley, Taylor, Daniel, Morrison

NO: None

BIDS:

Bids for the College St. property were opened and read. No further decisions were made.

DISCUSSION:

The committee to name the elementary gym has been a slow process. Dr. Kell would like to have two of each on the committee (teacher, community, staff, business owner). Mr. Cox brought to the board a proposed idea for bus supervision. He would like to add another person to the routes for supervising or add cameras on the buses. He has a couple staff members that have said yes to riding the routes. Mr. Cox is still working on the camera cost for the buses.

REPORTS:

Mrs. Whitaker presented for Professional Development. She has approved conferences for teachers and grad hours. Teachers are encouraged to use the PD funds for continuing education.

Mrs. Robertson presented for the FACS dept. She has classes all day that deal with students preparing for the real world they will face. FCCLA has held the first blood drive already. The blood drive helps to give a scholarship to seniors that are graduating.

ADMIN. REPORT:

Mr. Cox present on the elementary. The elementary has received new math books and ELA curriculum. New also will be RTI, which helps with the I-Ready and STAR program. Online, step up to writing will be implemented for K-6. STEM classes are under way. The district had to add an additional kindergarten class the first of Sept. The focus room is being used daily for the students in need of time to process behavior. Math programs will be challenged this year.

Mr. Hyde presented for the high school. Homecoming week begins on Tuesday and Friday will be the parade followed by the game. Grade policy is working very well. Students are made accountable every week for no F's. The teachers are also doing their part in getting the grades entered. The afterschool snack program is up and going. The district had training on the 9th for intruder training. They will return in Feb. for another round.

Dr. Kell presents with the first month of the year being positive. The atmosphere around the school is positive. The four day week has not had any issues. Teachers and administrators are motivated for the year. The district is still in need of improvements. The areas that are priority, technology and safety. He hopes to resolve some of the issues this year.
