

The Brandon Weyant Memorial Scholarship

Brandon M. Weyant was a 2012 graduate of Uniontown High School, a member of the Uniontown Missionary Baptist Church, and very proud to be an organ donor. Brandon was a highly intelligent young man that realized he did not live up to his academic potential and regretted it. He felt that higher education was very important and knew through his own experience that not everyone reaches his or her academic potential in high school. At graduation, he would not leave the stage until he made sure his diploma was signed. Several of his classmates say that he knew more useless information than anyone else. He had a witty sense of humor and loved to laugh as well as make others laugh, especially when they really needed it. Brandon always felt misunderstood by his peers as well as most teachers. Brandon was a protector of the underdog and would be helpful and protective of anyone he felt needed it.

In honor of the importance Brandon placed on education, his loving family would like to offer this scholarship in his memory.
