

Mr. Knight -
I've been one of the the greatest classes I've had all year. I won't miss you though because
I know I'll probably see you again.
I hope this I'm. and possibly this summer too. I won't chat in great.

Alma Mater

Dear Alma Mater to thee we nobly sing,
Forever in our hearts we will treasure thee.
In our hearts are found hap-

These memories will hold for many years to come.
Our school on the hill top will ever here be known,
As standard Bearer of the

With neverending faith we now
lift up our eyes,
To the school we love the best

Mrs. Katherine Williams, in her English classes, explains why usage is a prime factor in the study of grammar.

Communications Contribute To The Betterment of Mankind

In her English classes, Mrs. Mary Meltabarger observes as a student completes an examination.

The English language is a varied kaleidoscope of ever-changing usage. With this in mind, the Northeast English Department is exploring every phase of its development.

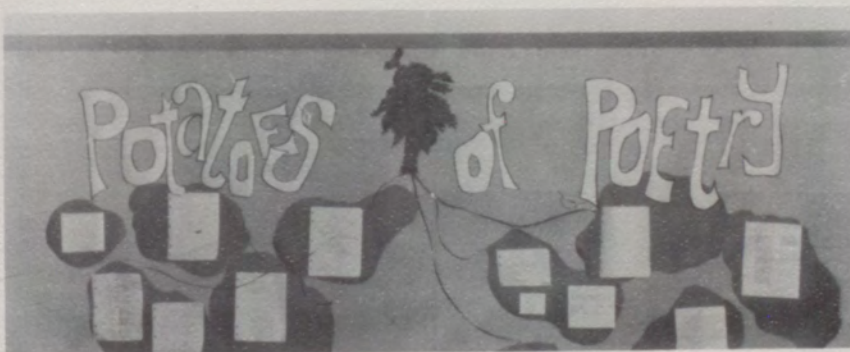

Mrs. Pattye Clark lectures on some of the finer points of literature.

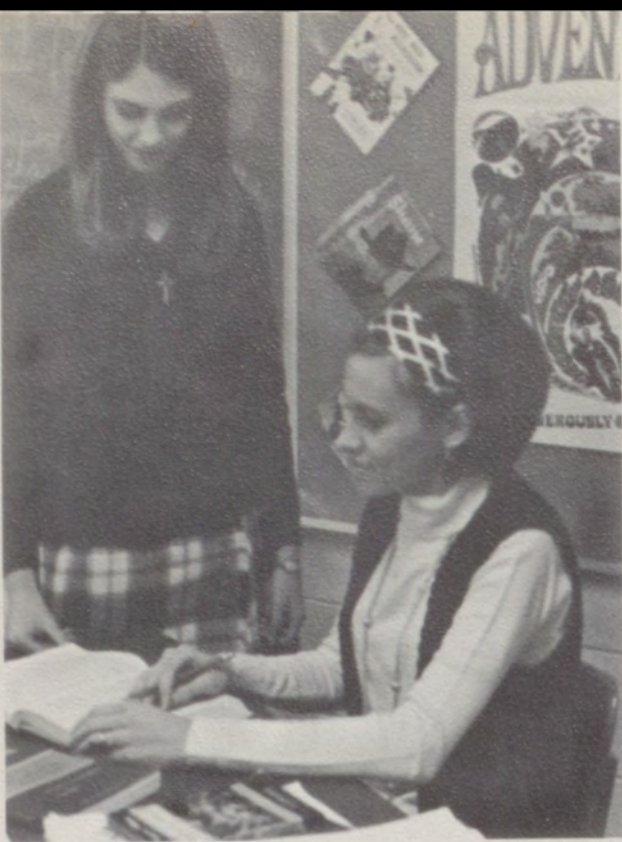

Mrs. Brenda Tackett makes preparations for her English class.

Creative writing and English teacher, Mrs. Emily Kelso, presents one phase of creativity.

Northeast provides in its curriculum, a class especially designed to enhance or develop creativity among interested students.

The complexities of English are explained to a student by Miss Carol A. Carter.

Creativity is Expanded.

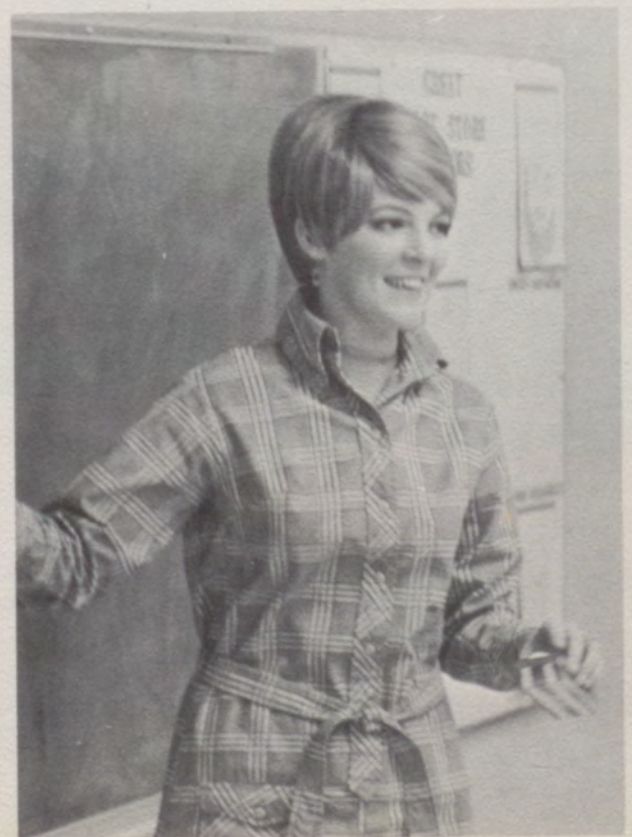

Mrs. Ivenola Smith checks for attendance as her English class begins.

Mrs. Ann S. Simmons laughs with her class during an English discussion.

Smiling, Mrs. Donna Abraham gives a lesson in literature.

Speech, Drama, and Debate

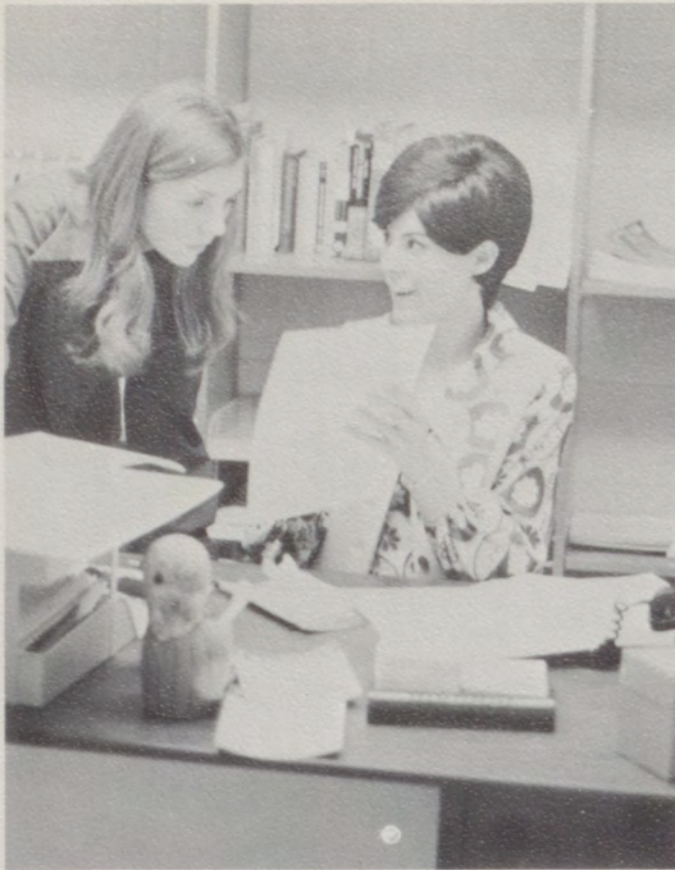

Speech, drama, and debate teacher Mrs. Judy Fuller emphasizes the importance of persuasiveness.

In addition to her duties as Dean of Girls, Mrs. Libby Narkinsky also instructs a speech class.

Journalism teacher Mrs. Margaret Rose Nalley aids Cindy Goodwin, advertising manager, with some ad layouts.

Dedication and Long Hours Are Required By Journalism

Whether it be in photography, newspaper or magazine work, or in a radio or TV newsroom, a career in journalism is exciting and rewarding. The Northeast Publications Staffs learn theory and gain practical experience through publishing the "Northeast Star" and "The Charger."

Brooksher Banks, yearbook editor, examines the product of skill and hard work -- the "Northeast Star".

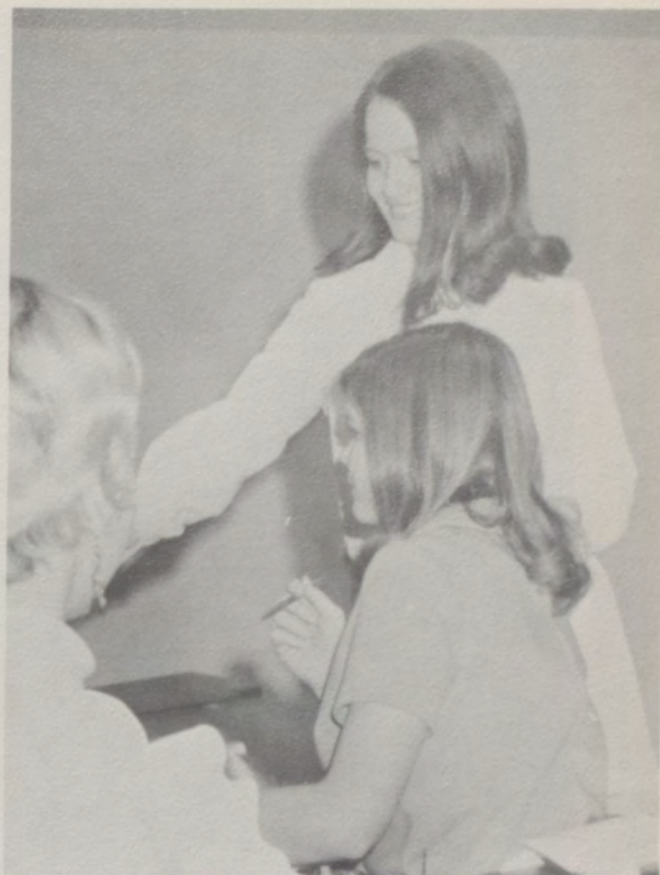

Language Study Links Culture

Mrs. Sarah Helms in her Latin classes reflects the association of this language and the medical profession.

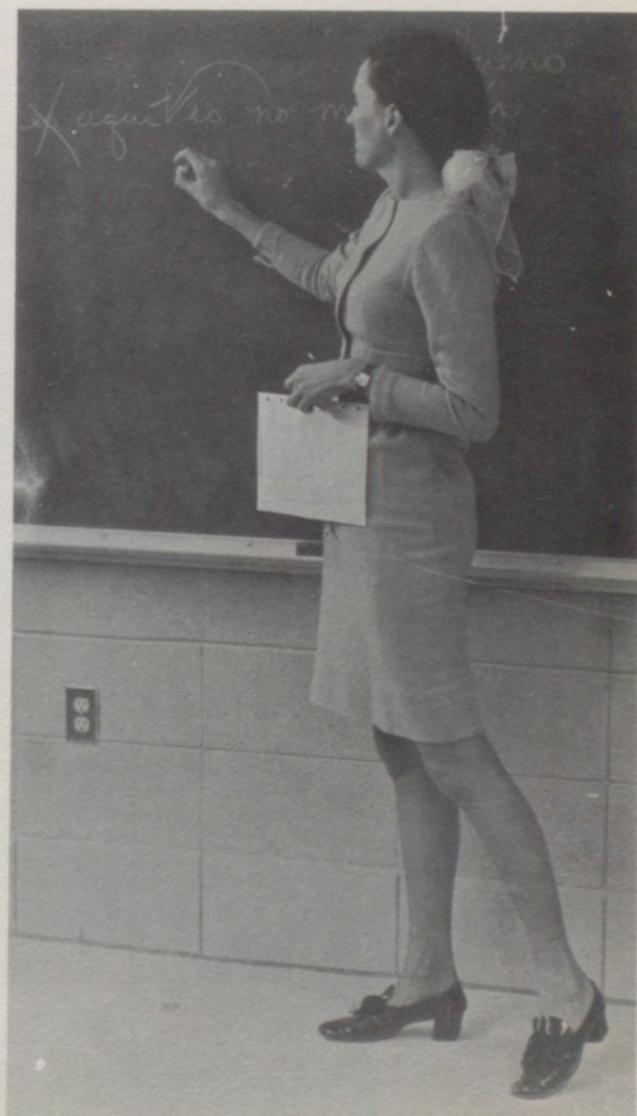

The study and development of the art of communication may someday truly enhance man's understanding of man.

"Parlez-vous francais?" Do you speak French? Students are learning to in Mrs. Brenda South's French classes.

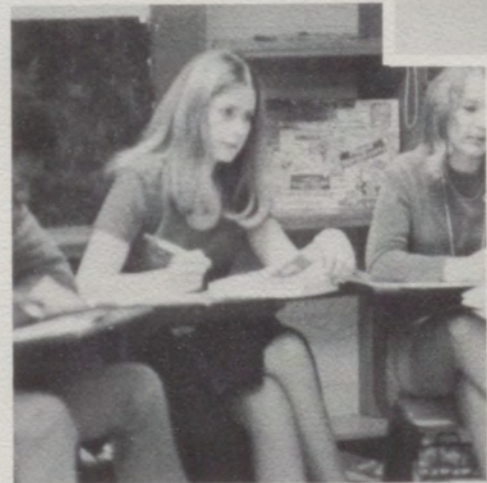

Mrs. Nancy Pennington shows that Spanish can be both entertaining and profitable.

Mrs. Mary Keller, History Department Chairman, conducts a lecture on American History.

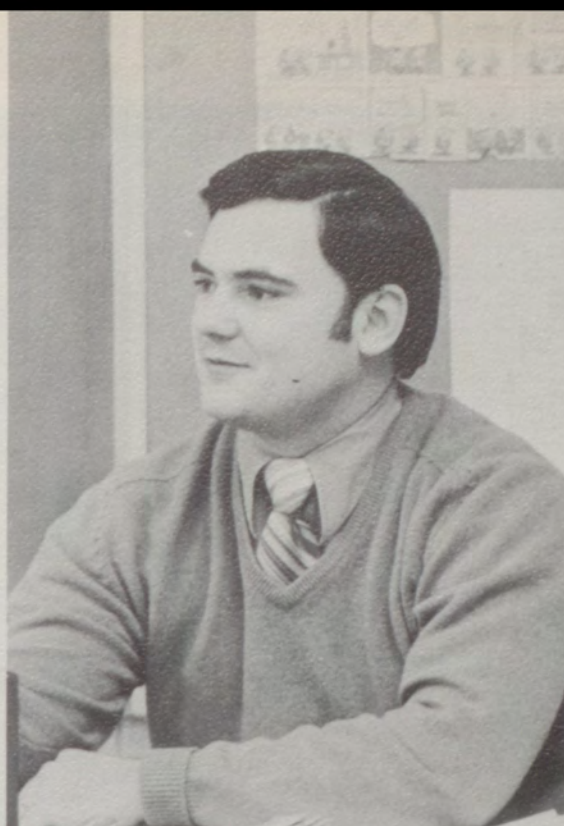

American History and Experiences for a Profitable Future

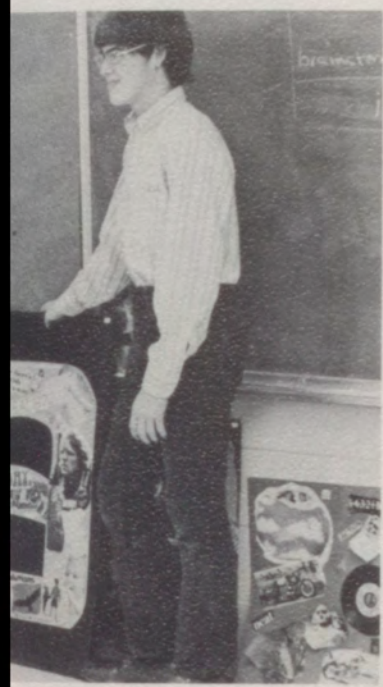

Mr. Gerald Ponder leads a discussion on current events in his American History class.

"For history is more than the record of man's conflict with nature and himself. It is the knowledge which gives dimension to the present, direction to the future, and humility to the leaders of men. A nation like a person, not conscious of its own past is adrift without purpose or protection against the contending forces of dissolution."

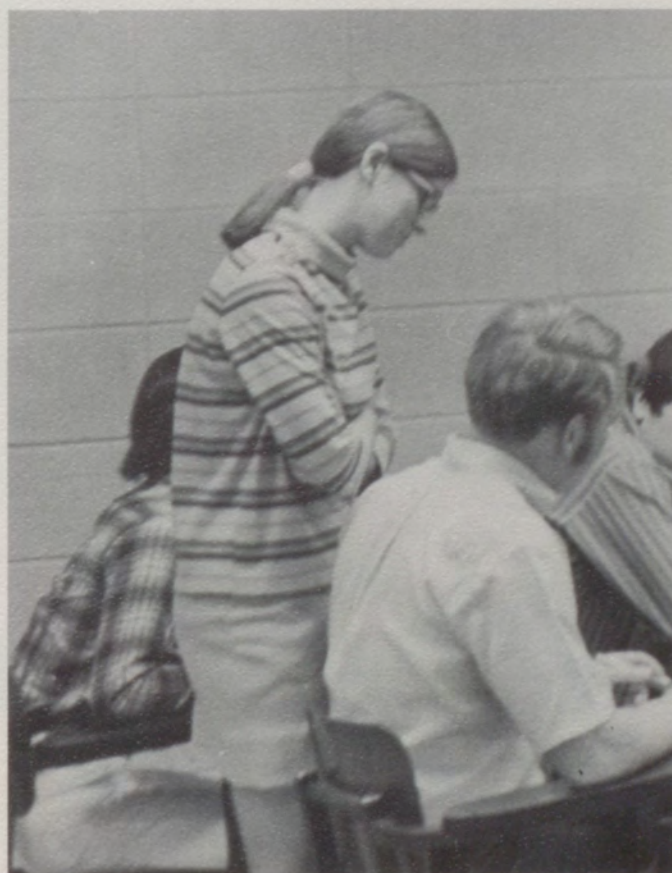

-Lyndon B. Johnson

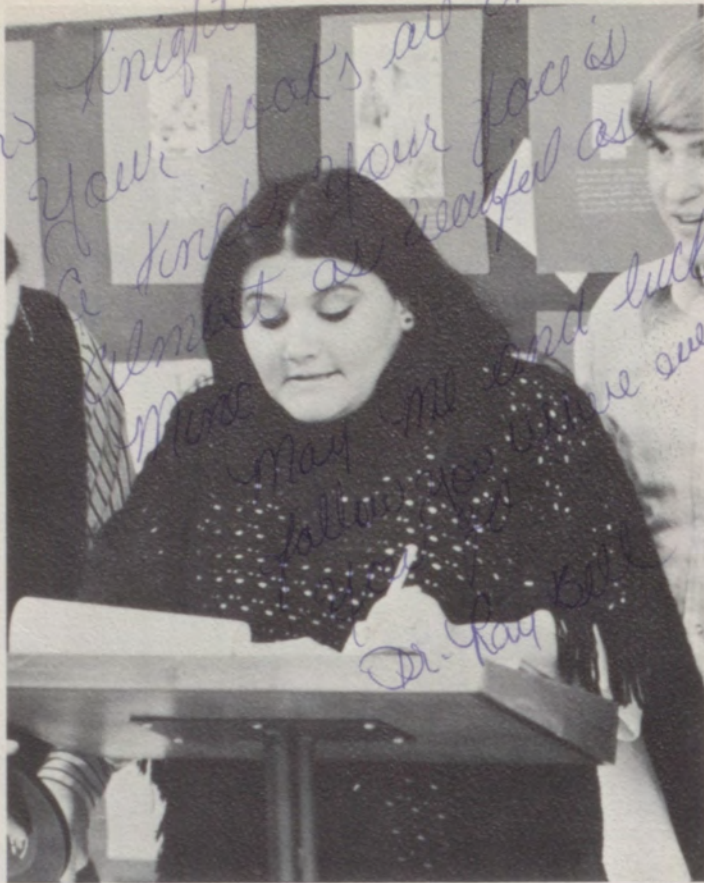

Mr. John McKinnon, American History instructor, listens as students relate current news events.

Assisting one of her American History students is Mrs. Nancy Fomby, who also teaches Economics and World Government.

Gwendolyn
Gottis

The importance of man's history is stressed by Mrs. Rena Knight. Mrs. Knight teaches American History and Human Relations.

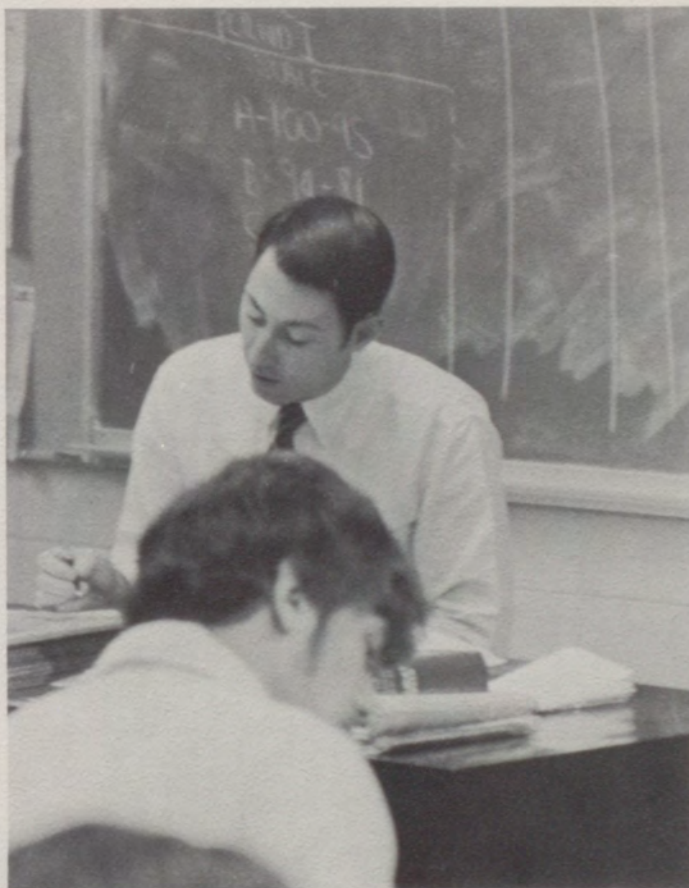

Mr. James R. Parker responds to students' questions.

"History, by apprising men of the past, will enable them to judge the future."

-Thomas Jefferson

Mr. Jeff Hardwick expresses world situations in a relevant manner.

Serious study of World History is pursued in Mr. David Kaufman's class.

Mrs. Lurene Jolly heads the Mathematics Department along with her duties of teaching Algebra II, Math Analysis and Trigonometry.

Higher Mathematics Provide A Challenge

Miss Walz demonstrates the methods of graphing to her students.

Miss Jean Walz assists Ronnie Smith in Algebra II. Miss Walz teaches four Algebra II classes and has one General Math class.

General Math and Geometry

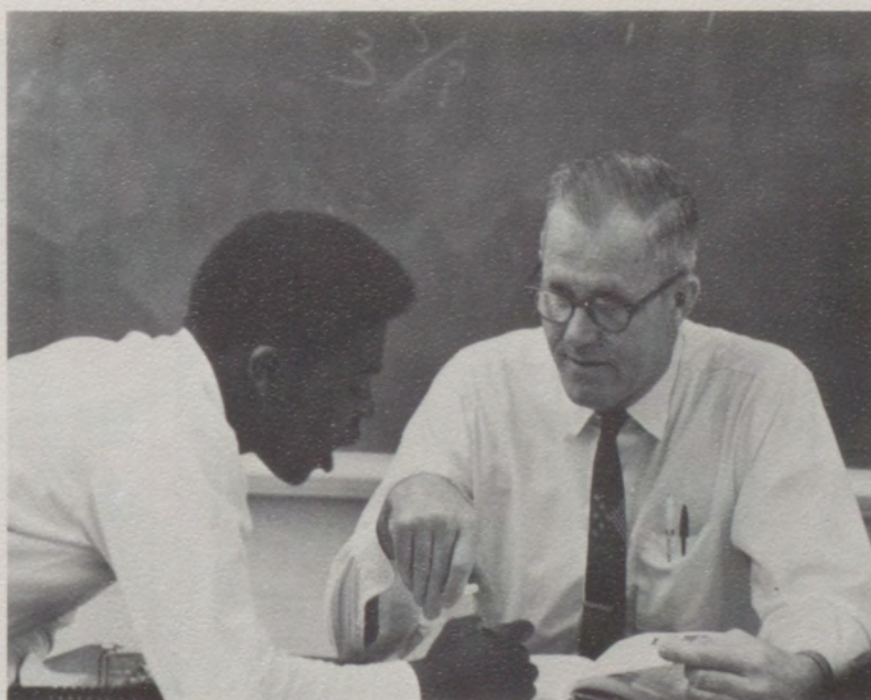

Perplexed geometry students concentrate to grasp more knowledge of the various axioms, theorem and postulates necessary in understanding geometry concepts.

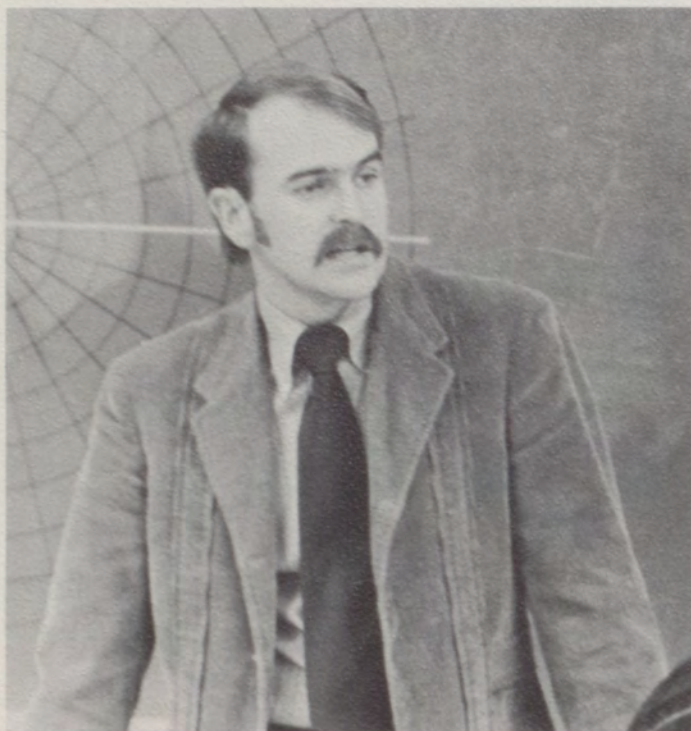

Miss Jane Carter instructs classes at Northeast in General Math and Geometry.

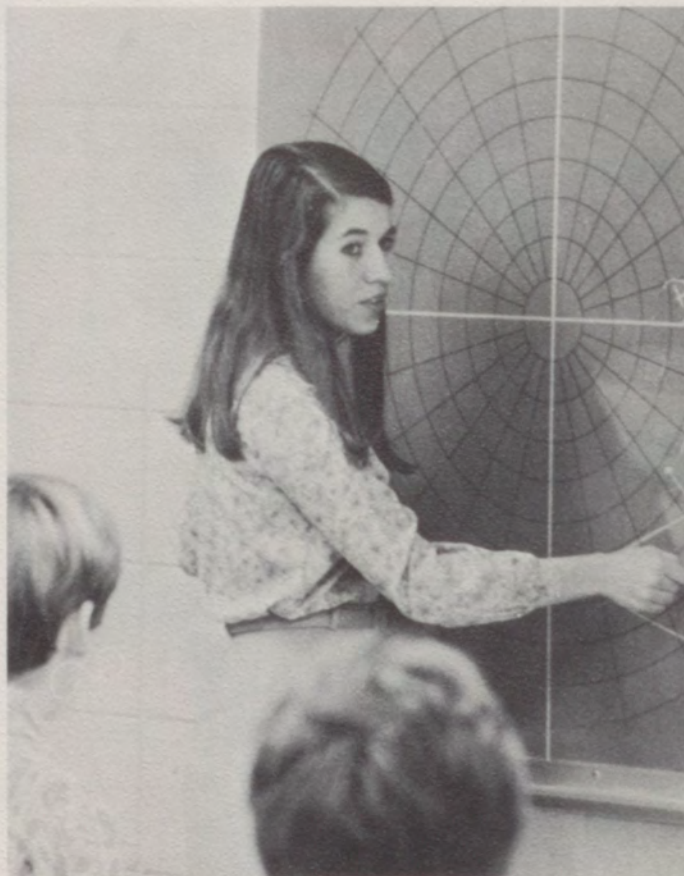

Mr. Charles Tollison patiently answers the questions of an inquisitive Ray Bell.

Geometry - Understanding of Math Principles

Mr. Jerry Huddleston explains the complexities of geometry.

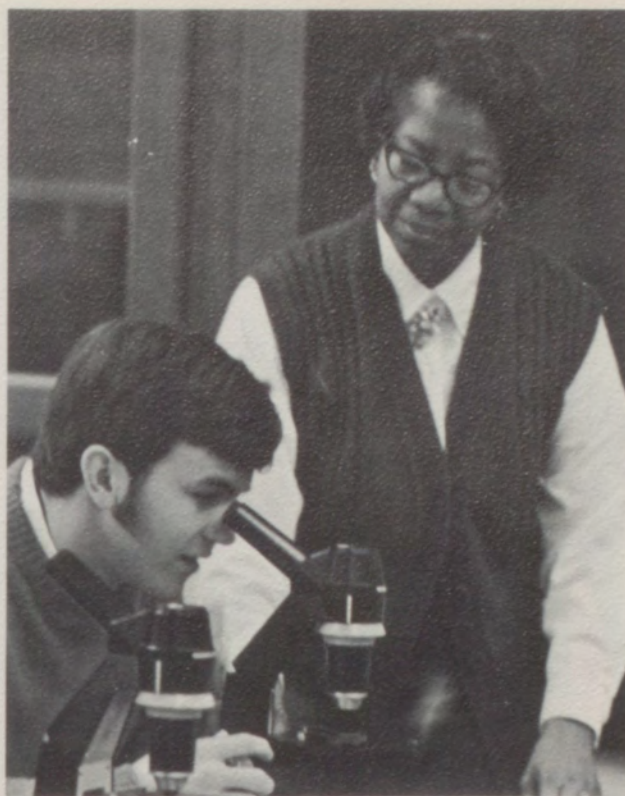

Basic concepts of General Math are taught by Mrs. Carolyn Sebastian.

Biology - Explorations of Life

Mr. David H. Manson teaches students the biological mysteries of life.

Mrs. Mattie Spears looks on as student marvels at a microscopic specimen.

"Science carries us into zones of speculation, where there is no habitable city for the mind of man."

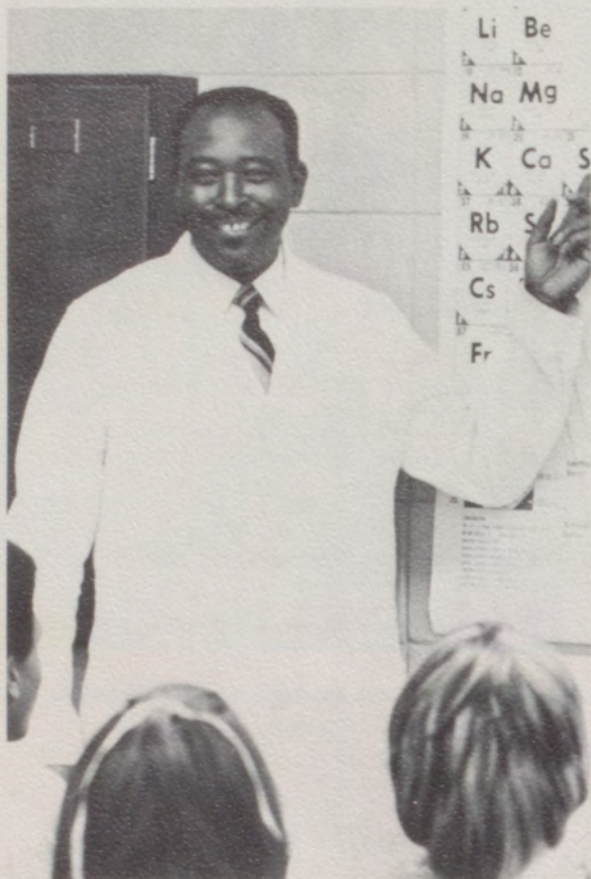

- Pulvis et Umbra

The structure of the protozoa is studied in Mrs. Virginia Raum's class.

Chemistry and Physics Yield Future Scientists

Mr. Varnell Norman instructs his chemistry students on the significance of the periodic table.

Chemistry students, Chuck Ball, Keith Bures, and Mark Zini carefully conduct an experiment during lab.

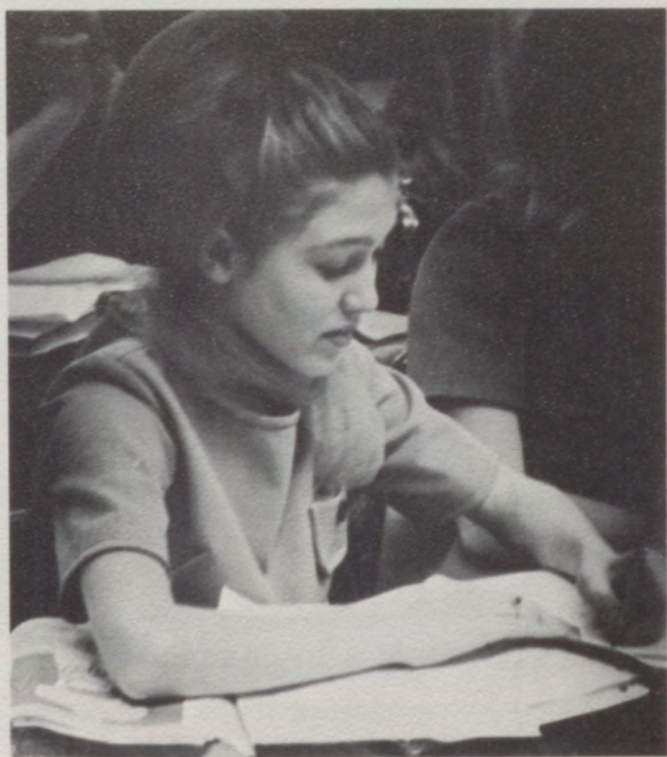

Mr. Drew Kelso, teacher of Physics and Algebra II at Northeast assists Ellen Lawrence during class.

Mr. Norman finds some time and a few quiet moments to spend in preparation for his next chemistry class.

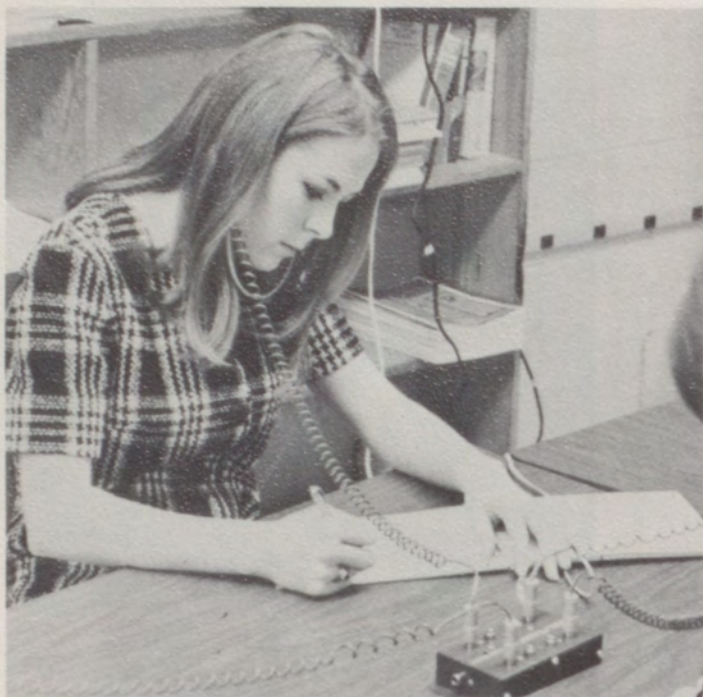

Science- a Basis For Understanding

Mr. Dana Chadwick, teacher of three Biology and two Life Science classes at Northeast, lectures biology students on plant life.

Mrs. Virginia Raum instructs her first period Life Science class on tooth anatomy. She also teaches two Unified Science classes.

Career Preparation

"Never fear the want of business. A man who qualifies himself well for his calling, never fails of employment."

-Thomas Jefferson

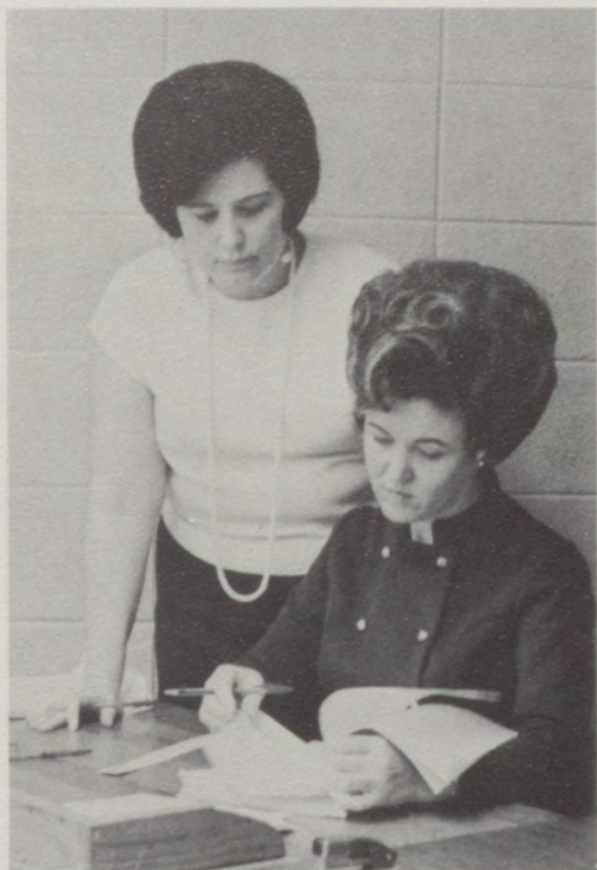

COE girls are instructed in business procedures by Mrs. Linda Eads.

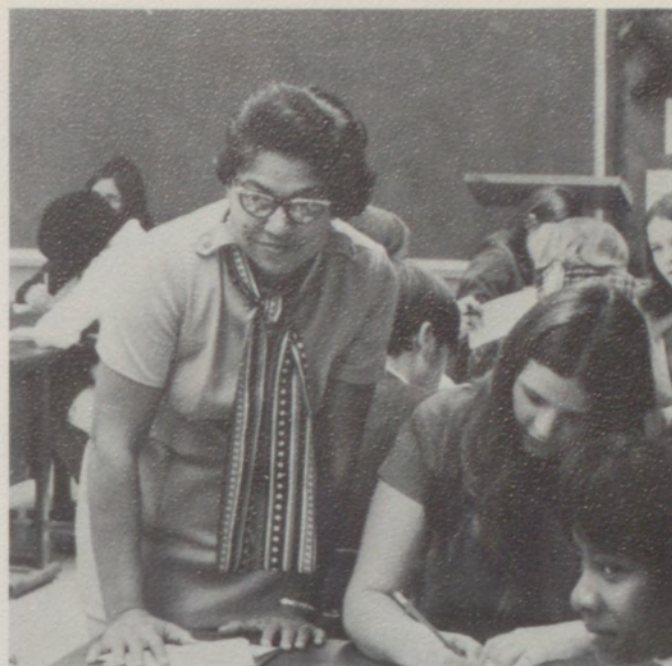

Mrs. Carolyn Garner smiles as students receive dictation.

The Endeavors of Business

Mrs. Patricia Donahey and Mrs. Melba Mason discuss the next day's typing assignment.

Karen Redd practices shorthand under Mrs. Catherine Marshall's helpful guidance.

Practice teacher, Mrs. Estella Anderson, gains experience as she conducts class.

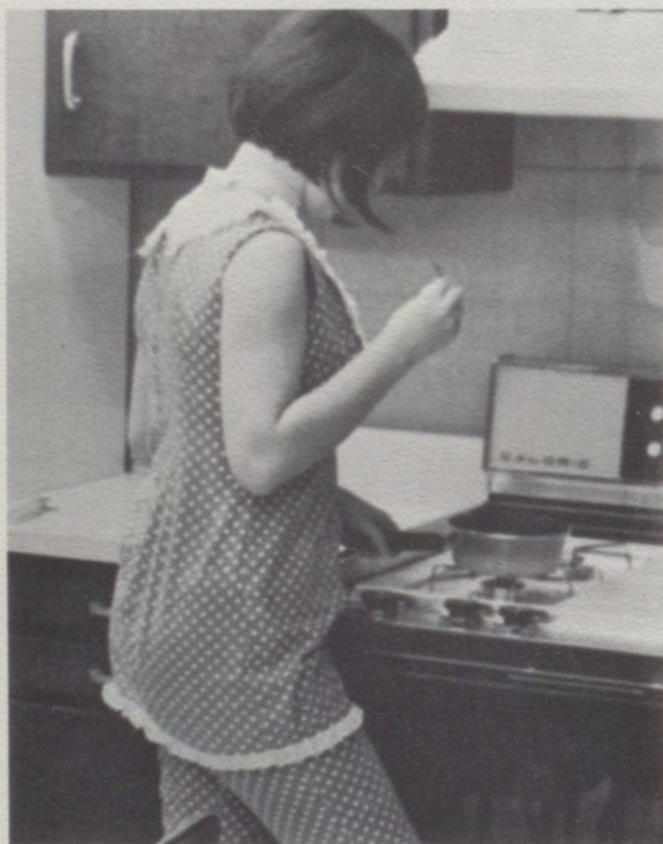

Mrs. Patsy Robertson is a Home Economics teacher at Northeast. Her students do work from their textbooks as well as in the labs.

Home Economics Develops The Homemaker For Tomorrow

Home Economics student, Nancy Hopkins energetically prepares to set the kitchen table.

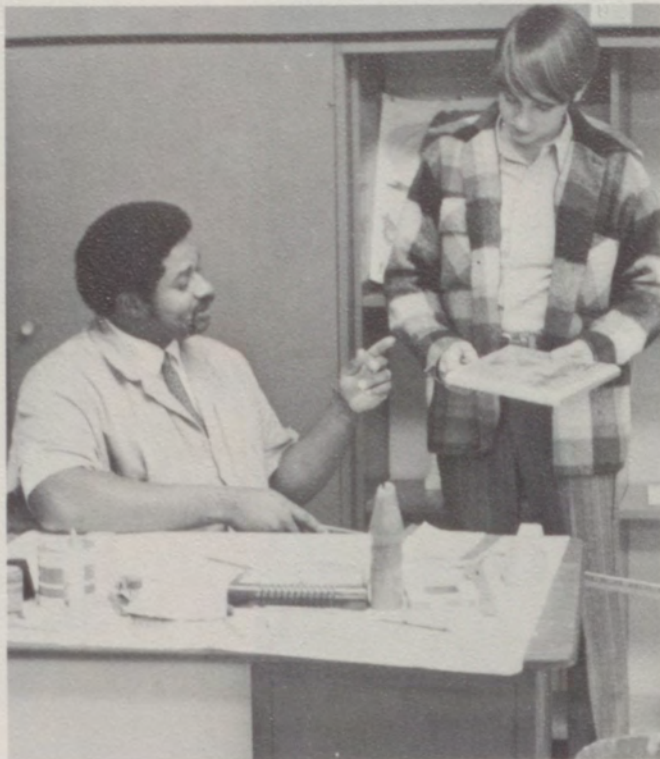

Beverly Smith uses the skills she has learned in Home Ec class by sewing a dress for herself.

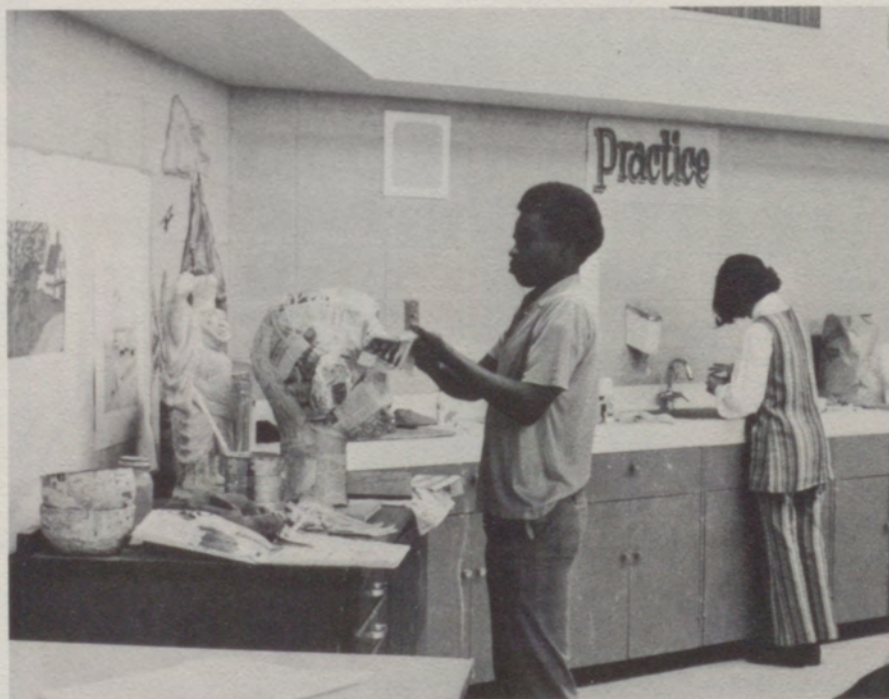

Mrs. Robertson helps Kathy O'Kelly in the Home Ec Departments kitchen.

Mrs. Dorothy Larson explains to her Home Ec students some important points in homemaking.

Mr. Harrison Johnson advises Don Kuonen on a project.

First NE Chapter of Quill and Scroll Organizes

Quill and Scroll was organized nationally with the end in view of recognizing and rewarding ability and achievement in writing and other phases of journalistic work in high school.

Brooksher Banks, Suzi Patrick, Karen Muldrow and Barbara Behr, the four transfer members from the NLRHS Chapter of Quill and Scroll, conducted the first initiation ceremony for the Northeast Quill and Scroll.

Kim Corbet and Suzi Patrick receive instructions from Quill and Scroll adviser, Mrs. Margaret Nalley, on the initiation ceremony.

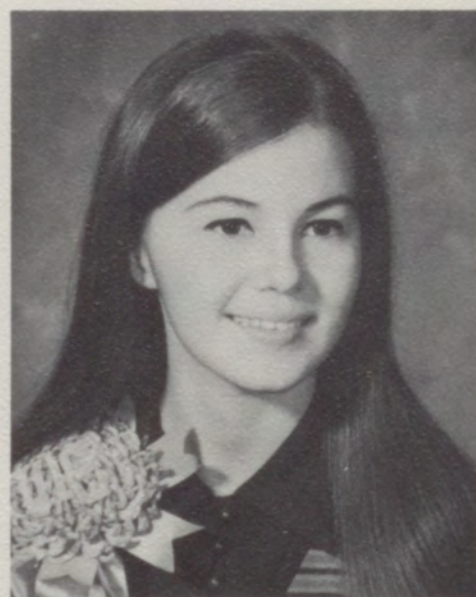

New members of Quill and Scroll are: (l. to r.) Cindy Goodwin, Lisa Polk, Kim Corbet, Rod Speer, Wendy Rynning and Beverly Wiles.

2,000 REASONS WHY

Should we ever be required to prove our interest in community health, we could cite 2,000 good reasons. Our prescription department stocks upwards of 2,000 medicinal ingredients. They come from every point of the compass. Some are prescribed daily, others only rarely.

These drugs are brought together in our prescription department to help us render competent professional service for the protection of your health.

 He been great.
 Mrs Knight

Mrs. Knight,

It's been really great having you for English then to brighten things up I've got you for History. Ush! Please don't teach next year!
Not really. Don't believe a word I say. Well on second thought!

Love,
Dellie
Forrest
The quiet one.

he staff of the "Charger" wishes to thank the "Charger's" many advertisers, subscribers and patrons as well as its publisher, Walsworth, the yearbook photographer, Bill Whiddon Studio and teachers, students and administrators who helped us produce this first yearbook of Northeast High School

Mrs. Knight.

To a teacher that is suppose to know the up's and downs of American History. And
does a real good job at it.
Good luck

Bob
Wardlaw

Ἀγαπᾶν Kupia Naitz, I'VE REALLY ENJOYED HAVING YOU AS A TEACHER HERE AT NORTHEAST. I FEEL I'VE TRULY LEARNED THINGS ABOUT
HISTORY. I HOPE YOU HAVE THE BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE. Καλὴ τύχη.

The first year at Northeast Senior High School has come and gone, and the recording of this year's history is now complete. This has been a challenging year, to say the least. And the challenge goes on. For the seniors, the end of this year means going on to college or finding jobs; it means no more absentee notes. To the juniors the end of this year means that they are no longer the "middle" class. And to the sophomores the end of this year means carrying on their first steps here at Northeast and not being the little ones anymore.

This book, the first Northeast CHARGER, is a part of all that is Northeast. This book reflects all the smiles, laughter, tears and indifference that combined to make this year what it has been. This book is in your hands now through the work of many people. It is something all of us can look back on with pride.

To the many people who worked many long and hard hours on this yearbook, we give our thanks: thanks to the first-year journalism students who finally sold enough advertising to pay for this book; thanks to Bill Whiddon Photography Studio; thanks to our faithful publisher, Walsworth; thanks to our student photographers, Gary Boerner and Dennis Franklin; and thanks to all the staff members. But our greatest thanks must go to our publications sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Rose Nalley. Her guidance and suggestions and patience aided us so much that we could never repay her.

The theme of this book has been PEOPLE. We know that for the rest of our lives PEOPLE will be the force behind our thoughts and actions, for PEOPLE are the balance wheel of the world. And it is the PEOPLE at Northeast that the staff of the CHARGER salutes. To the PEOPLE at Northeast we give this thought by Carl Sandburg:

"I am the people -- the mob -- the crowd -- the mass. Do you know that all the great work of the world is done through me?"
