Dear Parents and Guardians,

I am happy to announce that the Town of Lebanon has hired Kevin Slonski as our School Resource Officer. Kevin's start date is expected to be on or before December 2nd.

The recruitment and selection process was comprehensive. Lyman Assistant Principal, Samantha McCarthy and I participated in interviewing Officer Slonski. Officer Slonski has 30 years of experience as a CT State Trooper. During his time as a trooper he received special training and gained experience with Active Shooter protocols, Emergency Medical Response, K-9 Instructor and Search and Rescue. Most recently, he was a detective in the Major Crimes Squad.

Prior to becoming a State Trooper, Officer Slonski taught English at St. Thomas Moore School and was a forest ranger for the State of Connecticut. Officer Slonski has experience as a youth athletics coach. In his spare time, he enjoys outdoor activities such as camping, hunting and fishing. In alignment with his degree in history/political science, Kevin also enjoys exploring historical sites around the United States.

Officer Slonski will be introduced to the students and school personnel through the morning announcements, classroom visits and attending the lunch waves at each of the schools. Officer Slonski will have an office located at Lyman Memorial High School, but will be a resource officer for all 3 schools. Once he starts, Officer Slonski can be reached via email at kevin.slonski@lebanonct.org and by phone at 860-642-5710.

We look forward to having Officer Slonski join our team. We believe that he has much to offer our students, staff, families and community.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Angeli
