

BMR Rubric for Civic and Social Expectations

Student Learning Expectation #5: Students will take personal responsibility in their learning

Student Learning Expectation #6: Students will exercise responsible citizenship

	Exceeds the Expectation	Meets the Expectation	Developing Toward the Expectation	Does Not Meet the Expectation
Students will take personal responsibility in their learning (#5)	Always takes responsibility for personal decisions and actions (Examples: accepts consequences, self-advocates, asks teachers for help, does homework, uses coping skills, etc)	Sometimes takes responsibility for personal decisions and actions.	Frequently neglects to take responsibility for personal decisions and actions	Rarely or never takes responsibility for personal decisions and actions
Students will exercise responsible citizenship (#6)	Interacts respectfully, listens when others are speaking, shows respect for school property and others' belongings, and encourages others' to do the same.	Interacts respectfully. Listens when others are speaking. Shows respect for school property and others' belongings.	Sometimes interacts respectfully. Sometimes listens when others are speaking. Sometimes shows respect for school property and others' belongings.	Interacts disrespectfully. Does not listen when others speak. Does not show respect for school property or others' belongings.