

RADIO AND TELEVISION DEPARTMENT

BEGINNING RADIO AND TELEVISION I and II: Grades 9- 12; two semesters, two credits

Beginning Radio/TV I is an introductory course that takes students through a curricular timeline from theory to application:

Beginning Radio/TV I Essential Learning Components: ELA Skills

1. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Field Equipment Operation/Safety.
2. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Extracurricular Production.
3. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Social Constructivism.
4. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Professionalism.
5. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Pre-Production.
6. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Production.
7. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Post-Production.

Beginning Radio/TV I Essential Learning Components: ELA Content

8. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Marketing Theory/Demography
9. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: History of Communication.
10. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Programming Theory.
11. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Camera Basics & Compositional Theory.
12. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: The Production Model.

Beginning Radio/TV II is application-based course that focuses on specific nuances and facets of video production:

Beginning Radio/TV Essential Learning Components: ELC Skills

1. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Extracurricular Production.
2. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Social Constructivism.
3. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Professionalism.
4. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Pre-Production.
5. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Production.
6. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Post-Production.
7. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Studio Equipment Operation/Safety.

Beginning Radio/TV Essential Learning Components: ELA Content

8. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Visual Narrative: Analysis.
9. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Audio Production.
10. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Interview Technique.

11. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Visual Narrative: Application.
12. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Studio Production.
13. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Electronic Field Production.

INTERMEDIATE RADIO AND TELEVISION I AND II: WARRIOR TV*: Grades 10-12; two semesters, two credits

Prerequisites:

- 1) successful completion of two semesters of Beginning Radio and Television I
- 2) application, interview, and instructor approval

Dual credit is available for juniors and seniors from the University of Southern Indiana under the CAP Program

Intermediate Radio/TV is an intensive production-based curricular experience that provides students the opportunity to publish content via the Radio/TV's Warrior TV platform.

Intermediate Radio/TV Essential Learning Components: ELA Skills

1. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Studio Production.
2. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Electronic Field Production.
3. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Production Equipment Operation and Safety.
4. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Professionalism.
5. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Social Constructivism.
6. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: The Production Model: Application
7. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Visual Narrative: Analysis.

Intermediate Radio/TV Essential Learning Components: ELA Content

8. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Autonomy.
9. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Feature Story/Feature Newscast.
10. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Spot Production.
11. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Program/Brand Enhancement.
12. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Visual Narrative: Application.
13. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Professional Resources & Portfolio.

ADVANCED RADIO AND TELEVISION: WARRIOR TV : Grades 11-12; two semesters, two credits

Prerequisite:

- 1) successful completion of two semesters of Radio and Television I Intermediate
- 2) application, interview, and instructor approval

Dual credit is available for seniors from the University of Southern Indiana under the CAP Program

Dual credit is available for juniors and seniors from the University of Southern Indiana under the CAP Program

Advanced Radio/TV is an intensive production-based curricular experience that provides students the opportunity to publish content via the Radio/TV's Warrior TV platform. Advanced Radio/TV students are expected contribute as student-leaders and/or "executive producers" for the Warrior TV platform.

Advanced Radio/TV Essential Learning Components: ELC Skills

1. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Autonomy.
2. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Studio Production.
3. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Electronic Field Production.
4. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Feature Story/Feature Newscast.
5. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Spot Production.
6. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Production Equipment Operation and Safety.
7. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Professionalism.
8. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Social Constructivism.
9. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC skillset: Visual Narrative: Analysis.

Advanced Radio/TV Essential Learning Components: ELC Content

10. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Visual Narrative: Application.
11. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Program/Brand Enhancement.
12. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Professional Resources & Portfolio.
13. Students will demonstrate mastery of ELC curricular content: Leadership.