WHAT'S HAPPENING AT TRI-VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

- INTEREST MEETING THIS WEEK FOR NEW "JA COMPANY PROGRAM"

Know a Tri-Valley student interested in sparking their entrepreneurial spirit? Attend our info session for our new Junior Achievement (JA) Company Program on November 13 at 6:00pm in the High School Commons. Tri-Valley HS has partnered will local business leaders to give TVHS students the chance to put ideas into action by creating and running their own startup. With the help of a student group and volunteer mentors, students will create, manage, and liquidate a business in 13 weeks. Any student at Tri-Valley High School can register for this free entrepreneurial after-school program. The once-a-week program begins in January and will be hosted at TVHS. More info and sign up at <http://bit.ly/2J2lrg6>. Next Friday, November 15 is the deadline to sign up!

- GREAT LEARNING OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS INTERESTED IN MEDICAL CAREERS

Each year Tri-Valley students are invited to apply to be a part of the LeRoy Cadaver Dissection Lab. Hosted by local physicians, the Cadaver Dissection Lab is hosted in LeRoy for a select group of students interested in medical careers. Please see Mrs. Vaux for an application if you are interested. Applications are due November 11th.

- VETERANS DAY ON MONDAY

Monday is Veterans' Day and we will be starting school with an all-school assembly to recognize the day. This year we will be joined by 22-year Air Force Veteran, Damian Hankins. We are grateful to Mr. Hankins and all veterans for their selfless service to all Americans. To all of you who are veteran, thank you for your service.

- LADY VIKINGS VOLLEYBALL FINISHES SEASON WITH APPEARANCE IN SECTIONAL FINALS

Congratulations to the varsity volleyball team on an outstanding season. The fun ride came to an end Thursday in the IHSA Sectional Final versus Decatur St. Teresa. The Lady Vikings set a school record for wins in a season in addition to being regular season and tournament champions of the HOIC and finishing with a record of 35 wins and 3 losses. Thank you to the amazing Gold Rush student section as well for all of the support this season at home games and on the road. And finally thank you to our senior volleyball players Sarah Boll, Regan Danko, Alivia Larson, and Kendall Peck for their dedication to Lady Viking volleyball and the leadership they displayed this season.

- SPEECH TEAM COMPETES AT OLYMPIA TOURNAMENT

Congratulations Speech Team members! 4 members attended the Olympia Tournament on Saturday with all placing! Emma Mast placed 5th in JV Informative speaking, Kaitlyn Jones and Anthony Decker placed 6th in Varsity Humorous Duet Acting, and Molly Klessig placed 7th in Varsity Dramatic Interpretation. Fantastic start to the season!

- PREPPING FOR WINTER: E-LEARNING DAYS AT T-V

With winter approaching, Tri-Valley superintendent, Dr. David Mouser, recently posted an update to the plan on days we are not in session due to inclement weather. Here is a link to his post.

- DOWNS 4-H CLUB COLLECTING BOTTLE CAPS

The Downs Top Notchers' 4-H Club is coordinating a service project at Tri-Valley called A Bench for Caps through the Green Tree Plastics Company. We are collecting plastic bottle caps and lids through Nov. 15. Materials will be recycled into a plastic bench which will be located at the McLean County Fairgrounds. Donations can be dropped off in a collection container in front of the office. Contact Amie Mouser (amouser@tri-valley3.org) if you have any questions.

100 YEARS. 100% READY.

JA Company Program ®

The JA Company Program gives students the chance to put ideas into action by creating and running their own startup. With the help of a student group and volunteer mentors, students will create, manage, and liquidate a business in 13 weeks. Any student at Tri-Valley High School can register for this free entrepreneurial after-school program. Capacity will be limited to 25 participants.

Why Join?

In JA Company Program you will not only learn how to run a business, but will also meet new friends, connect with mentors, network with professionals and gain the skills and experience to help land your first job in the career you want to pursue.

Through JA Company Program®, we were able to learn from each other, teach each other, and most importantly, build something we all cared about.”
