3. Program: Social and Emotional Learning

Ms. Jean Barbanente, School District 88 Assistant Superintendent for Student Services, Ms. Keri Karpman, School District 4 Assistant Superintendent for Student Services, Mrs. Jennifer Sabourin, School District 48 Director of Student Services, and Ms. Diana Brown, School District 45 Director of Student Services, co-presented on the topics of Social and Emotional Learning, Trauma Informed Schools, and Restorative Practices.

The co-presenters invited the attendees to participate in a group activity. Each table shared what they believed were the top five skills students need to be successful adults.

The co-presenters shared that healthy social and emotional skills are better indicators of adult success than academic achievement. They defined and discussed direct Social and Emotional Learning instruction, the development of Trauma Informed Schools, Restorative Practices, and the positive impact these initiatives have on student behavior and learning.

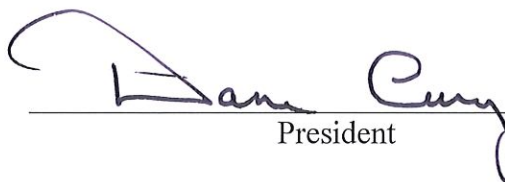

4. Other Comments and Observations: None

5. Adjournment

At 7:53 p.m., a motion was made by Mr. Cuny and seconded by Mrs. Craft Cain, to adjourn the Joint Board of Education Meeting.
