MCMS: Living the RAIDER WAY

At MCMS the main focus of The Raider Way is to provide a clear system for all expected behaviors. Through PBIS (Positive Behavioral Intervention and Supports) we will work to create and maintain a positive, productive, and safe environment which ALL school community members (administration, faculty/staff, parents, and students) have clear expectations and understanding of their role in the educational process.

What is PBIS?

PBIS is a proactive approach to school wide discipline. This system of supporting positive behavior focuses on a team-based system approach and teaching appropriate behavior to all students in the school. The goal of PBIS at Midwest Central Middle School is to accomplish the following:

Behavioral Expectations are Defined-

Behavioral expectations are clearly defined in the positive, simple Raider Way Code.

Behavior Expectations are Taught-

The behavioral expectations are taught to all students at the beginning of the school year and throughout the year as needed.

Appropriate Behaviors are Acknowledged-

Once appropriate behaviors have been taught, they need to be acknowledged on a regular basis. Through PBIS we have designed "Raider Bucks" for faculty/staff to consistently recognize and reward students who demonstrate expected behaviors.

Behavioral Errors are Corrected Proactively-

The staff will use the Student Behavior Management Flowchart to help distinguish major from minor behavioral incidents and how to approach the behavior. Minor behaviors will be corrected. Major behaviors will be documented and addressed by the office and may result in disciplinary action.

What is the Raider Way Code?

The students and staff have adopted the Raider Way Code which clearly defines the positive behavioral expectations. The Raider Way Code is:

"To live the Raider Way
we walk the Raider P.A.T.H."

P—Participate

A—Always Safe

T—Take Responsibility

H—Have Respect

What should students expect from PBIS?

- A positive learning environment
- The chance to shine and be recognized
- Raider Bucks!
