An internationally recognized expert on executive function

Sarah Ward regularly on the executive function programs and strategies she has developed with her Co-Director Kristen Jacobsen. Their 360 Thinking Executive Function Program received the Innovative Promising Practices Award from the National Organization CHADD. She has presented to and consulted with over 585 public and private schools in Massachusetts and across the United States on how to implement strategies into the classroom setting.

Do you want to help your students with their organization, homework and time management skills?

Medfield Talks Speaker Series Presents:

Learn it Today, Use it Tomorrow!
Practical Strategies to Develop Independent Executive Function Skills

Parents, teachers and professionals: Come learn how to coach students to effectively self initiate and manage academic work, time, and materials.

You will walk away with many simple, ready-to-use strategies and tools for teaching students how to develop independent homework and executive function skills.

Wednesday, December 18th, 7-9 pm
Medfield High School Auditorium
24 Pound Street, Medfield, MA 02052

The community is welcome.
RSVP here requested but not required.