

IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

Tony Glazer named Bryan County High School Football Coach

Recently, Coach Mark Wilson informed Bryan County High School that he would be unable to return to BCHS as the head football coach position due to family reasons. Coach Wilson wrote in a statement, "Bryan County is a special place and I thank them for the opportunity to be the Head Football Coach at Bryan County High School. Due to a change in my family circumstances it is better for me and my family to remain at my current position."

The search committee reconvened and has named Tony Glazer as the Head Football Coach of Bryan County High School. Coach Glazer is currently the Defensive Coordinator at Liberty County High School. He has had the opportunity to coach some of the best defensive talent in the state of Georgia over the past 4 years. "I am very excited to be joining the Redskin family. I welcome the opportunity to build upon the program in place, and look forward to getting to work", said Glazer

Bryan County High Assistant Principal, David Tucker, stated "We are excited to welcome Coach Tony Glazer and his family to Bryan County High School. He possesses the passion, energy and commitment to lead our program and develop our student-athletes. As a product of Bryan County Schools, we are proud that he will lead our football program. I believe he will provide consistent leadership and long-term success at BCHS."
