Attention Seniors: University Scholarship deadlines are approaching. Most colleges have a deadline of February 1 for their general scholarships. Deadlines will vary according to colleges. Submit your application on-line!!

- Cameron University: Cameron University makes it easy to apply for all institutional scholarships. All you need to do is submit the General Scholarship Application online. Complete all parts of the application and submit online. You will be considered for all Cameron scholarships and tuition waivers. Your application will be forwarded to the department of your major. An early application substantially improves chances for a scholarship award. Priority deadline is February 1. Scholarship applications received after the priority deadline will be considered only if funds are available. Cameron University PLUS Scholarship FINAL deadline - February 1 (Need ACT score of 24 or higher)

- Southwestern Oklahoma State University: There are a variety of scholarship opportunities available in several categories: (1) Academic Scholarships, (2) Athletic Scholarships, (3) Talent-Based Scholarships, and (4) Southwestern Oklahoma State Regents Scholarships. We’re also happy to accept financial awards earned aside from state scholarships, and we encourage students to search for college scholarships in Oklahoma from private foundations and non-profit organizations. To access our scholarship resources go to our scholarship applications page. We’re more than happy to answer any questions you may have. Contact our Student Financial Services today to find out how we can assist you in your desire to attain a quality college education. SWOSU Presidential Leadership Scholarship FINAL deadline - March 1 (Need ACT score of 24 or higher or top 40% of class)

- Oklahoma State University: Students who apply for admission by February 1 of their senior year will receive maximum scholarship consideration. Funding is limited, and awards cannot be guaranteed for students who apply for admission after February 1. All incoming freshman students who are admitted are automatically considered for scholarships. Scholarship selection criteria vary, but can include academic performance, standardized test scores, class rank, and a student's essay responses on the application for admission. Scholarship Deadlines: February 1 - priority scholarship deadline for students entering OSU for the Fall semester. To be considered for all scholarships at OSU you must apply for admission prior to February 1. Applications received after this date may not be considered for all scholarship programs and will be considered only if funds remain available. July 1 - absolute scholarship deadline for students entering OSU for the Fall semester. Once this date has passed OSU will no longer make scholarship offers to entering students; all information must have been received prior to July 1. October 15 - absolute scholarship deadline for students entering OSU for the Spring semester.

- University of Oklahoma: OU offers a wide variety of scholarship opportunities for admitted incoming freshmen based on criteria such as academics, leadership potential, community involvement, intended major, extracurricular interests, etc. For the comprehensive list of freshman scholarships for which you may be considered, please visit scholarships.ou.edu. In some cases additional requirements (essays, interviews, auditions, portfolios, etc.) may be necessary. Apply by December 15 at apply.ou.edu to be considered for general freshman scholarships. Academic merit-based scholarships are determined on a rolling basis after admission. To be considered for leadership, community involvement and some departmental scholarships, submit the Common Application and OU supplemental questions by the scholarship deadline. Please note that some scholarships may have earlier deadlines and some scholarship selection committees may begin awarding scholarships earlier. You are encouraged to apply for admission/scholarships early during your senior year of high school.
