

Child Find

Public Notice

An effort to provide educational opportunities for all children with disabilities is underway in the Valliant School District. Valliant Public Schools offers comprehensive special education services to eligible students ages three through 21 years. Parents, educators, members of local organizations, business firms, and others are asked to help in efforts to locate children who may be disabled. All referrals are considered confidential, and services are provided at no cost. A free, appropriate, public education with a full continuum of services is available. If you live within the Valliant School District and have or know of a child not attending school because of a disabling condition, please contact: Linda Coffman Valliant Special Education Director, #580-933-7232
