

Traditional Calendar--Hybrid Calendar--Comparisons

Traditional Calendar of Student school days 178 of Teacher work days 190

Hybrid Calendar

of Student school days 178

of Teacher work days 190

Comparison

Same

Same

The hybrid calendar simply takes approximately 4 weeks of the traditional summer break and inserts those breaks into the school year. This additional time during the school year will allow for a more concentrated focus on instruction and learning while building in times for revitalization, recharging, and renewing for both students and teachers. The hybrid calendar also allows for more ongoing PD throughout the school year, which reduces the number of PD days that must be frontloaded in the summer.