Please insert the District Support Plan here:

The Armored School District will incorporate a reading initiative targeting students at need to develop phonemic awareness and decoding for grades Pre-k-2 and focus on Language Comprehension for grades 3-12.

The Armored School District will focus on improving student attendance using an incentive based initiative. The district will monitor patterns of student absences and work with support staff such as our district nurse, mental health specialist, and school counselor.

The Armored School District will establish enrichment and intervention opportunities for all students daily through our WIN (What I Need) period. Student data will be monitored and opportunities provided for individual student needs.

The Armored High School will create and participate in Community Service Learning activities incorporated into the school year.

Allocation of Resources should align with the District Support Plan.
