From the High School Ag Department

In the Ag Department students have been reflecting on their personal lives and working on goal setting for 2020. All students have come up with some short, intermediate, and long term goals for their lives utilizing the SMART goal setting method. SMART is an acronym used to create goals that are specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, and timebound. This method has helped students come up with very detailed goals that they can later determine easily if they achieved them or not. On the FFA side of the Ag Department, we had two students compete in public speaking and employability skills Leadership Development Events (LDEs). Brooke Kiehnhoff created a cover letter, resume, job application, and list of references for her mock interview for a horse riding instructor position. She placed 4th in this competition. Lilly Juhl competed amongst other sophomores in the northeast district in public speaking with an impressive speech about the importance of small farms. As spring approaches, students will begin preparing for FFA week at the end of February and competing in Career Development Events (CDEs). Be on the lookout for information about activities during FFA week soon!

Dear Seniors & Parents:

The yearbook and media technology class would like you to bring in a baby and senior photo to be used for both the yearbook and picture slideshow during graduation. If you do not provide photos, your composite picture will be placed in the yearbook and slideshow. The photos can be horizontal or vertical. Photos will be scanned and returned to senior students in a timely manner or you can email digital copies to rhsyearbook@cyclones114.org. Also, please bring any group photos of students in your class captured over the past 12 years to be included in the graduation slideshow. There is no charge for putting your senior photo in the yearbook and slideshow. You may purchase a message spot to be placed by the baby photo in the yearbook for $10. There is a limit of 50 words. If you wish to have the message, please bring the ten dollars when you bring your photos. These are great memory slots that mean a lot for several years. The deadline to submit baby photos and messages is February 28th. No late submissions will be accepted.
