Good afternoon South Summit Family,

School is back in session and is off to a great start! We're excited to see some new faces joining our administrative teams as well as some shifting of others into different buildings. Mrs. Wilkinson has moved from splitting her time as Assistant Principal at both South Summit Middle and Elementary, to serving as the full-time Assistant Principal at the Elementary. Additionally, Mr. Brown has joined the South Summit Middle School team as a full-time Assistant Principal. Staff at both schools are excited to welcome the additional support and are already seeing great things happen. SSSD is also working with the Summit County Sheriff's Office to potentially share the cost of a full-time School Resource Officer, which would be a first-of-its-kind approach to school safety in our District.

· Tess Cronin, a junior at Silver Summit Academy has just been recognized as a College Board Awardee for Rural and Small-Town students. She earned this honor because of her academic achievements in school and her outstanding performance on her AP exams.

· The first few weeks of High School are usually filled with schedule changes and chaos for the counselors, but this year they've had fewer schedule changes than in previous years. That means more in-class time and stability from Day 1.

· The Middle School is seeing success with faculty and staff step up wherever they're needed to help fellow staff or students. Their motto this year is, "SSMS is the Place to Be", and from the looks of it, it really is.

· South Summit Elementary surveyed its staff asking what values they thought best described their school. The results created their Core Values: Committed Teachers and Staff, Academics, a Happy School, Kindness and Respect for Self and Others. SSES is a place where ALL students learn, master and achieve at high levels.
