

Office of Secondary Instruction

Judy Pennington, Director
District Test Coordinator

The Russellville School District CTE Department aims to develop students who...

- Exhibit high moral standards in the digital world
- Develop leadership skills
- Adapt to the changing world of technology and becoming a lifetime leader
- Understand the effects bad choices can have on your life
- Are able to evaluate and synthesize from multiple sources in order to arrive at a conclusion
- Are prepared for the workforce or post-secondary education
- Exhibit strong work ethic
- Develop soft skills including being present and on time, abiding by dress code, following directions, meeting deadlines, having self-motivation
- Exhibit computer literacy in Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Google tools and knowing which is appropriate to use each
- Know their audience
- Problem solve
- Are financially literate
- Have an understanding of economics
- Are able to think critically
- Exhibit research skills
- are responsible, focused , knowledgeable of digital resources and a problem solver
- Completes assignments/projects
- are an independent thinking
- listens , reads, writes, comprehends technical literacy
- Are capable of researching and determines validity
- Know how to log into network; remembers RSD EAST and personal passwords
- Know how to troubleshoot anything
- Create professional documents
- Know how to communicate professionally