

BARNEVELD SCHOOL DISTRICT
NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Official Barneveld Nondiscrimination Clause

The Barneveld School District does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, creed, age, national origin, ancestry, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability.

State Law Compliance

Wis. Stat. 118.13 Pupil discrimination prohibited

(1) No person may be denied admission to any public school or be denied participation in, be denied the benefits of or be discriminated against in any curricular, extracurricular, pupil services, recreational or other program or activity because of the person's gender, race, religion, national origin, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability.

Federal Law Compliance

The Barneveld School District complies with all Federal laws and regulations prohibiting discrimination and with all requirements and regulations of the U.S. Department of Education.

In accordance with Federal law and U.S. Department of Agriculture policy, this District is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

This policy also prohibits discrimination under related federal statutes, including Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (race and national origin), Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (sex), and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (handicap).

ADA Language

Reasonable accommodation, including the provision of informational material in an alternative format, will be provided for qualified individuals with disabilities upon request.

Notice of this policy and its accompanying complaint procedures shall be published at the beginning of each school year. In addition, a student nondiscrimination statement shall be included on student and staff handbooks, course selection handbooks and other published materials distributed to the public describing school activities and opportunities.

It shall be the responsibility of the District Administrator to examine existing policies and develop new policies where needed to ensure that the Barneveld School District does not discriminate pursuant to federal and state law. The District Administrator is designated annually to receive complaints. He/She shall provide a complaint procedure to resolve complaints alleging violation of these laws, and to assure that the district's policies are in compliance.
