Dear Parents/Guardians,

The Administration was notified that one or more students in your child's 2nd period class (6A) has tested positive for COVID-19. In accordance with precautionary guidelines from the Illinois Department of Public Health, all students and the teacher in this class (including your child) will be required to wear a mask at all times while in school for the next 10 days (until 5.27.2022). To assist us with this, please ensure you're your child has a mask to wear at school. Also, please monitor your child for any COVID-like symptoms and seek proper medical treatment and inform the school nurse if:

- he/she is experiencing any COVID-19 symptoms[2].
- Tests positive for COVID-19.

Should you have any questions, please contact Ms. Jennifer Hartmann or Principal Dr. Keli Ross.

We encourage all members of our Lansing School District 158 family to be safe and follow proper safety and social distancing guidelines in and out of school.

Sincerely,

Dr. Keli Ross
