Applicants are accepted on a first come, first served basis, based on appropriateness for the program, understanding of expectations, and one or two personal interviews with the JMG job specialist. Answering the above questions in a straightforward and timely manner increase your chances of acceptance. The JMG job specialist is the one and only person who makes the determination on who does and does not participate in JMG during any given year. The JMG job specialist can also terminate or continue any student's participation in JMG at any time during the school year. By signing this document, you agree that you have read and understood these guidelines.
