The Tri-State Club is a member of the Association of Desk and Derrick Clubs (ADDC) which began in 1949 as an educational organization made up of individuals employed in or affiliated with petroleum, energy and allied industries. You can find further information available on the website: www.addc.org.

The Tri-State Club is made up of members and prospective members in southern Indiana, southern Illinois and western Kentucky, also known as the Illinois Basin. Our main goal with this scholarship is to help provide the means for someone to obtain a trade that is likely to be used in the oil, gas and energy industries.
