

Northwestern Local Schools Educational Time Line

Monday, March 16th - No school for students. Teachers should work from home to create lessons for remote teaching and learning. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus.

Tuesday, March 17th - Election Day, get out and vote but use good health hygiene. No school for students. Teachers should work from home to create lessons for remote teaching and learning. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus. Look for google forms document on school website. Students or parents can fill this out to help the school know the educational needs of the students.

Wednesday, March 18th - No school for students. Teachers should work from home to create lessons for remote teaching and learning. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus.

Thursday, March 19th - No school for students. Teachers should work from home to create lessons for remote teaching and learning. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus. School Board Meeting, 6:30pm

Friday, March 20th - No school for students. Teachers should work from home to create lessons for remote teaching and learning. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus. Look on the website for details on the Continuity of Education Plan. Teachers should have contacted their students with information by this date.

March 23 - March 27th - No school, Spring Break!

Monday March 30th - Teaching and learning resumes! Classes will be online or by instructional packets. No students or teachers should be on campus. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus. Deployment of laptops and/or instructional packets will happen on this date.

Tuesday, March 31st - Classes will be online or by instructional packets. No students or teachers should be on campus. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus.

Wednesday, April 1st - Classes will be online or by instructional packets. No students or teachers should be on campus. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus.

Thursday, April 2nd - Classes will be online or by instructional packets. No students or teachers should be on campus. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus. We hope to know by this date as to when we will be allowed to return to campus.

Friday, April 3rd - Classes will be online or by instructional packets. No students or teachers should be on campus. Only essential personnel should report to work on campus.