

The following is a message from Hawkswood School.

Hawkswood School will be closed from Monday, March 16th through Friday, March 27th, 2020 due to the current public health coronavirus situation.

Tomorrow, Monday, March 16, 2020, is a staff-only professional day for the preparation of instructional materials. All staff will report at their normal arrival time of 8:00AM.

Parents and guardians, please refer to your child's work folder for their instructional materials. Staff are available through their email addresses and will communicate to you by email as well.

Hawkswood School will communicate future messages or updates by phone blast, through our website and on our Facebook page.
Thank you.
