- The School District and all Title I schools must develop with, and distribute to, parents and family members, a written Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP).
- All Title I schools are required to collaborate with parents and families in the development of the School-Parent Compact.

The Case Avenue Elementary School Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy

The policy must be:

developed jointly with and agreed upon by parents and family members of Title I children;

written in an understandable format and provided in a language parents can understand;

- distributed to all parents and family members of Title I children;

- made available to the local community; and

- updated annually to meet the changing needs of parents, family members, and the school.

School Parent Compact

- Each Title I school must have a School-Parent Compact that is developed jointly by parents and school personnel
- The compact sets out the responsibilities of the students, parents, and school staff in striving to raise student achievement.
- School-Parent Compact posted on district website & mailed to all families

2021-2022 Parent Family Engagement Policy

Case Avenue Elementary School

36 Case Avenue ♦ Sharon, PA 16146

Parental and Family Engagement Policy

The Title I Parent and Family Engagement section of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Section 1116(b) requires each Title I school to develop a written parent and family engagement policy that describes the means for carrying out the requirements of Section 1116. The school must ensure that information related to school and parent programs, meetings and other activities are sent to the parents of Title I children in a format and in a language the parents can understand.

The policy will be:

- ☛ developed jointly with and agreed upon by parents and family members of Title I children;
- ☛ written in an understandable format and provided in a language parents can understand;
- ☛ distributed to all parents and family members of Title I children;
- ☛ made available to the local community; and
