

2020 Class of 20

Good Morning Seniors,

I'm just checking in on you. I'm sure you've been a mess. I have been too. I wish I could say something or do something to make this all go away. It feels like a bad dream or a movie. I'm so sorry this is happening your senior year. I just wanted to let you know I'm thinking about you and I wanted to reach out.

As far as where we go from here, we will have to wait and see. I'm hoping we can return March 31 and get back to business at school. We're all optimistic at this point. But, it could be April. It could be until the end of the year. We just don't know.

Whatever happens, we will make the best of this situation. Eventually, it will get sorted out. Don't give up hope, because that's all we have right now. We will try to get back to school, back to sports, hold our prom, awards nights, last day for seniors, the senior picnic, and graduation. Unfortunately, I can't guarantee anything, but we will try our best. I promise you.

And that's what I need from you right now. To stay strong for family, your school, your classmates, and your community. Be a leader and find things to keep you busy. Do your work as best you can and make the best of the situation you're in. You have a choice to be miserable or a choice to rise up. Make the right one. It won't always be easy, but you can do this.

And as far as next year, and your future, it will somehow pan out. Whether it's college, or work, the military, or trade school, the tide will turn and eventually we will rise up again and soar. The moment will come and you will know when it's here. Until then. Be the best you can be and do the best you can.

I miss all of you and I'm proud to be your principal. Until we meet again. Be looking for more announcements coming from the office in the next few days.

Sincerely,

Dr. Becker
