

SCHOOL-PARENT-STUDENT CONTRACT

COYLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Cole Public School District, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary Act (ESEA participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help achieve the State's high standards.

This school-parent-student contract is in effect during the school year 2020/2021.

School Responsibilities

The Coyle Public School District will:

1. Provide a high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows:

- All teachers are "highly qualified" as defined by the federal guidelines of No Child Left Behind.
- All teachers will use the State guidelines when planning their lessons.
- Instruction will maintain/improve Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) as defined by the State.
- After school tutoring/enrichment classes will be offered as needed for grades 1-12.
- Make sure students are getting enough exercise and eating a balanced diet while at school to comply with Safe and Healthy School guidelines.

2. Hold parent-teacher conferences (at least twice in elementary schools) during which this contract will be discussed as it relates to the individual child's achievement. Specifically, those conferences will be held at mid-term of the first 9 weeks.

3. Provide parents with frequent reports on their child's progress. Specifically, the school will provide reports as follows.

1 st 9 weeks	3 rd 9 weeks
2 nd 9 weeks	4 th 9 weeks
1 st semester	2 nd semester

Parents will also be provided with reports when their child falls on the "F" list in grades 3-12 on a weekly basis until the student's grades improve.

4. Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows:

Before school: 7:45am until 8:05am in the teacher's classroom, by appointment.

After School 3:45pm until 4:15pm in the teacher's classroom, by appointment.

Any prearranged meeting between parent and teacher in designated room.

5. Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows:

Letters will be sent home the first day of school asking for volunteers for the classrooms. Parents are invited at any time to come and observe, but they must check in at the front office of their building.
