

STAFF QUESTIONING OF STUDENTS

Principals and their designees shall have the authority and duty to conduct investigations and to question students pertaining to infractions of school rules, whether or not the alleged conduct is a violation of criminal law. Such investigations shall be conducted in a way that does not unduly interfere with school activities. Students are expected to cooperate. Failure to do so could result in disciplinary action.

Principals and their designees shall determine when the necessity exists to contact law enforcement officers; when the behavior of persons jeopardizes the safety of students, school staff, or school property, or interferes with the operation of the school; or to conduct an investigation alleged criminal behavior.
