Sunflower Summer is Back!

Sunflower Summer is a state wide program sponsored by the Kansas State Department of Education, which allows for children and families to explore Kansas museums, zoos, historic landmarks, and much more for FREE. This year they've added more adventures including day camp experiences, field trips, a trip planner and additional venues. Check out the the Sunflower Summer website for more details and a list of sites to explore. The link is sunflowersummer.org

Oxford Public Library Summer Reading Program

The Oxford Library has a summer reading program to encourage children to keep engaged in books and reading during the summer. This year's theme is "Oceans of Possibilities" Check out the Oxford Public Library for more information, <https://oxford.scklslibrary.info/>

Congratulations to the Graduated Class of 2022

Summer Sports Camps, Weights, and Work Outs

Many coaches have opportunities for student athletes to work on their skills and stay in shape through the summer months. Below is a list of dates and times. Coaches will also share open gym times and summer team camps with athletes. Those activities are in addition to the information below.

High school summer weights for both boys and girls, going into grades 9-12 will begin on Monday June 6th and will have two sessions, 6am-7am and 7am-8am. Athletes entering grades 6-8 also start summer weights on June 6th but will go from 8am-9am. High school boys basketball camp will be from 11am-12pm, June 27-30th. Little Kids Basketball camp will be from 1pm-2:15pm June 27th-29th. High School volleyball camp will be from 10am-12pm June 21st-23rd and Little kids volleyball camp will run from 1pm-3pm on the same dates. Junior high boys basketball camp will be from 10am-12pm, July 11th-14th. Football camp for grades 7-12 will be from 6pm-8pm July 11th-14th. 7-12 Girls basketball gym and camp times will be announced soon. Watch the district website for updates, also check your athletes backpack for flyers and enrollment forms.

ENROLLMENT for the 2022-2023 school year will open JULY 1st.
