

JASON ADAMS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

- Jason Adams graduated from Centralia High School in 1999. He then went to Manhattan Area Vocational School to become an HVAC technician. After working in Topeka and Emporia for several years, he came back to Centralia and began working for Eisenbarth Plumbing, Inc. as an HVAC Technician.

He was passionate about firefighting and was a member of the Centralia Volunteer Fire Department. He loved hunting, fishing, four-wheeling, and being around his family and his friends. Jason was well respected by his family, friends, and the customers he worked for. He was able to make those around him feel comfortable using his great sense of humor and his gift of gab. Jason never knew a stranger!

Jason passed away on July 30, 2009 from an automobile accident on his way to a job site. He was an eye and tissue donor, and therefore he touched the lives of so many people both while he was living and after his death.
