August 16 – First day of school. August 15 – Elementary having an Open House. Fall Sports have started. Homecoming set for September 9th against Anselmo- Merna.

Superintendent Malander discussed the budget timeline coming up which is known as LB 644. LB 644 states if Central Valley Public School District exceeds the 2022-2023 allowable growth percentage criteria of a 2% base limitation percentage increase plus the real growth percentage increase for the 2022-2023 budget year on overall expenditures, which includes the bond fund, building fund, and general fund and all other taxing funds. A joint hearing with the county will take place on Thursday, September 22, 2022, at the Greeley County Courthouse Conference Room at 6:00 p.m. Then the Central Valley Board of Education would then hold a meeting to approve the budget and set the levy on Friday, September 23, 2022, at 6:00 p.m. in the library in the school in Wolbach. If the Central Valley Public School District does not exceed the 2% growth plus real growth percentage increase requirement, we will hold our own regular budget hearing and set the levy on Monday, September 12, 2022, at 7:00 p.m. in Greeley at the Central Valley High School Library and proceed as we have done it in the past.

The new coach bus is in Scotia in the bus barn. Ziembra Roofing will be out to Wolbach to put a membrane on the wall and replace the membrane on the house.
