

Hoffman of the Team Jack Foundation wins The NASCAR Foundation's award

Co-founder of the Team Jack Foundation, Andy Hoffman, has been named the 2016 winner of The NASCAR Foundation's prestigious Betty Jane France Humanitarian Award presented by Nationwide for his philanthropic efforts to find a cure for childhood brain cancer.

Hoffman was among four finalists from across the nation up for the award. This award honors a NASCAR fan who has positively impacted the lives of children through volunteerism.

After two months of online fan voting on NASCAR.com, Hoffman emerged from the group of selected finalists. The voting ended Monday night; the annual award was presented on Tuesday night during The NASCAR Foundation's Inaugural Honors Gala held at New York City Times Square.

Over the past six years, The NASCAR Foundation has awarded $875,000 to the charities in honor of twenty remarkable finalists, with almost 200,000 children positively impacted.

Hoffman will receive a $100,000 donation from The NASCAR Foundation for the charity he represents, the Team Jack Foundation.

Team Jack was founded by Hoffman and his wife, Brianna, in 2013 after their son, Jack, was diagnosed with a brain tumor. Team Jack works to raise research funds and create national awareness of pediatric brain cancer.

"Receiving this award is truly a reflection of all of those amazing people that helped support the Team Jack Foundation since day one," Hoffman said. "Winning this award, literally, could be the difference between life or death for a child someday. Our hope is that the $100,000 donation will provide the seed money for us to help fund yet another clinical trial."

Introducing Hoffman at the NASCAR Foundation Honors Gala on Tuesday night was Martin Truex Jr., who is currently in first place in the Sprint Cup NASCAR Chase Standings.

Truex has his own foundation and has created similar goals as far as developing new, pediatric-centric cancer treatments.

"It's amazing," Truex said about Hoffman in an interview with ESPN. "It's an unbelievable story and his commitment is incredible."

Since the Foundation's inception in January 2013, it has funded five research projects nationally.

Recently, Hoffman helped successfully lobby for a $3 million pediatric brain tumor program at Nebraska's Fred and Pamela Buffett Cancer Center, $1.5 million of which is matched by the Team Jack Foundation.

This groundbreaking program will help Nebraska's brain tumor children receive better treatment and affordable access to national clinical trials.

Today, the Foundation is comprised of three staff members, an eight person board of directors as well as a scientific advisory board.

The Foundation continues to be powered by generous volunteers all across Nebraska for various projects and events.

"Receiving this award is truly a reflection of all of those amazing people that helped support the Team Jack Foundation since day one. Winning this award, literally, could be the difference between life or death for a child," Hoffman said. "This movement could not have happened anywhere else in the country except Nebraska."

West Holt FFA continues State Championship tradition in 2016

By Advisor Dave Gibbens

West Holt FFA members traveled to the Lincoln area on September 27th to compete in the State Range Judging contest.

The contest consisted of 45 Junior Division teams (freshmen – sophomores) and 46 Senior Division teams (juniors – seniors). Teams from West Holt topped both divisions, earning state championship honors for the fifth year in a row.

The Junior Division team of Casey Coburn, Austin Wenner, Cole Laible, and Kooper Jelinek won over second place Burwell by a wide margin, outscoring them 1527 to 1438.

Coming in 16th was the team of Leighton Mlady, Martin Wentworth, Lindee Wentworth, and Anna Albrecht.

The Senior Division team competition was won by the team of Eddie Fredrick, Seth Wentworth, Mason Hale, and Seth Hytrek, scoring 1589 points to Burwell's 1562.

Coming in a close third with 1542 points was the team of West Holt's Brea Hostert, Emily Burk, Bailey Kraus, and Brandon Jelinek.

Finishing in the sixth spot was the team of Jenae Osborne, Jake Judge, Dani Laible, and Bryce Kerkman.

Placing 13th was the team of Caitlin Butterfield, Emma Laible, Brent Lemmer, and Breydon Mlady.

Sophomore Casey Coburn topped all competitors in both junior and senior divisions to earn the individual state champion plaque.

Other junior division ribbon winners were Austin Wenner (7th), Cole Laible (22nd), Kooper Jelinek (28th), Leighton Mlady 41st, and Martin Wentworth (43rd). There were 182 junior division competitors.

West Holt had five senior division competitors finish in the top 10 – Eddie Fredrick (2nd), Seth Wentworth (4th), Jenae Osborne (6th), Brea Hostert (7th), and Mason Hale (9th).

Others earning ribbons in the Senior Division were Emily Burk (17th), Bailey Kraus (18th), Caitlin Butterfield (20th), Jake Judge (26th), Emma Laible (29th), and Brandon Jelinek (35th). There were 191 competitors in the Senior Division.

Do you know your cholesterol numbers?

By LaDonna Werth,
Extension Educator
Holt & Boyd Counties

It is important to be aware of cholesterol numbers because high cholesterol is one of the major controllable risk factors for coronary heart disease, heart attack and stroke. There's no better time than right now to know your numbers.

When you get the results of your cholesterol blood test you should know your total cholesterol, HDL cholesterol and LDL cholesterol. The desirable total cholesterol level is 200 mg/dL or below.

Low density lipoprotein (LDL), also known as "bad" cholesterol, is considered a good gauge for risk of heart attack and stroke. It is the LDL, along with other substances, that builds up on artery walls forming a thick plaque that narrows arteries and makes them less flexible. When a clot forms and blocks an artery, a heart attack or stroke can be the result. It is optimal for LDL to be below 100 mg/dL.

High density lipoprotein (HDL) is referred to as the "good" cholesterol. High levels of HDL can provide some protection against heart attack and stroke. HDL helps keep the LDL from building up on artery walls. For men, the average HDL reading is 40 to 50 mg/dL. In women, it is 50 to 60 mg/dL. Less than 40 for men and less than 50 for women puts you at a higher risk for heart disease. Above 60 mg/dL provides protection against heart disease.

There are some things that impact cholesterol that you have no control over — they include age and heredity. Cholesterol levels increase as we age and high cholesterol tends to run in families. There just isn't anything you can do to change your genes.

However, you can control your diet, weight and physical activity, all of which can impact your cholesterol numbers. Pay attention to saturated fat, trans fat and dietary cholesterol — the body makes cholesterol from saturated and trans fats.

Saturated fats are found in foods like high-fat meat, cheese, milk and butter. (Remember that there are plenty of meats that are lean, and milk and cheese come in low-fat and non-fat varieties.)

Check food labels to find the amounts of trans and saturated fats, and eat as little as possible.

Being overweight can increase your cholesterol numbers and is also a risk factor for heart disease. Be sure to get 30 minutes of physical activity most days of the week.

Everyone over the age of 20 should have their cholesterol checked at least every five years. If you have high cholesterol or are at risk for heart disease, you should have it checked more often.

Stuart 5th & 7th Grade Students Attend Youth Frontiers Kindness & Courage Retreats

Submitted by Patty Hanzlik

The 5th and 7th grade students of Stuart Public School attended the Youth Frontiers Kindness & Courage Retreats respectively at Niobrara Public School on September 22nd.

The event had attendees from Lynch, Niobrara, Verdigre, Creighton, Chambers, West Boyd, Elkhorn Valley, O'Neill, Elgin, Orchard-Clearwater, Pope John, Ewing, and Stuart.

Six presenters from Youth Frontiers led the students in an action-packed day. Youth Frontiers, a nonprofit organization, based in Minneapolis, Minnesota has been delivering programs to schools for over 20 years that build positive school communities and help young people realize the importance of respecting themselves and others.

The Kindness Retreat helped build a more caring school community by engaging students in activities that demonstrated the painful effects of bullying and emphasized the value of kindness.

Elementary school students experienced the positive effect of the kindness boomerang during a high-energy day with classmates.

Students learned that, like the golden rule, if they want to catch kindness, they've got to throw the kindness boomerang out there!

The Courage Retreat helped build a more inclusive school community by encouraging students to accept people for who they are, resist following the crowd, and acting with moral courage despite their fears.

Alison Stracke and Connor Jarman for attended with the 5th grade students and Andrew Olson, Harlee Fischer, and Brook Duke attended with the 7th grade serving in the capacity as small group leaders.

Mrs. Sharon Paxton served as a sponsor.

Story of ‘unusual’ ball field to be presented at Atkinson Library

Western history author and speaker Jeff Barnes will be coming to the Atkinson Public Library to present a story on one of the most unusual and storied baseball fields in Nebraska.

The Tuesday, October 18, 1:00 p.m. presentation is sponsored by a grant from Humanities Nebraska.

“Sand Hills and Sandlots: The Amazing Story of Rushville’s Modisett Ball Park” is a recounting of the ball park built by ranchers that went on to host a nationally famous baseball school, sponsored by the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees, which saw a southpaw from Gering, Nebraska, who struck out Mickey Mantle.

In 2014, the ball park underwent a complete restoration for the park’s 75th anniversary, in large part funded by a Nebraska publisher who grew up in Rushville and played at the ball park as a boy.

“It’s truly incredible for a town of less than 900 people to have such a storied park,” said Barnes, “and even more incredible for the park to be rebuilt for a second 75 years. But it’s a wonderful tale of how the right people in the right community taking the right actions can come together to create a shrine to the great American pastime.”

The 45-minute presentation includes historic images and stories of Rushville’s relationship with baseball. The talk is taken from Barnes’s new book, Extra Innings: The Story of Modisett Ball Park.

A former newspaper reporter and editor, Barnes lives and writes in Omaha. He is a board trustee with the Nebraska State Historical Society, former chairman of the Nebraska Hall of Fame Commission, and one of the top-requested speakers with Humanities Nebraska.

He is the author of Forts of the Northern Plains, The Great Plains Guide to Custer, and The Great Plains Guide to Buffalo Bill.

RC&D exploring recyclables trailer

The North Central RC&D will meet at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, October 26 at the Bassett City Office Meeting Room, formerly the RC&D office.

The Council is exploring the possibility of offering a trailer that can be loaned out from the North Central RC&D to gather recyclables in Boyd, Brown, Cherry, Holt, Keya Paha and Rock County.

“This could be a great way to assist everyone in recycling efforts. To succeed, we need strong representation from each of the counties at this meeting. There is no way the project will succeed without people getting involved in a grass roots way. If you are interested in recycling, if you can volunteer in some way, please attend. Everyone attending will work together on defining details. We can’t make commitments if we don’t see the level of interest that will show the possibility this idea could work,” commented Council President Mike Burge.

Notices of the meeting have been sent to all the member organizations encouraging them to send a representative.

Sheila Coulston, 74

A funeral service for Sheila Mae Coulston, age 74 of Bainville, Montana was held on Wednesday, September 28, 2016 at Bainville High School with Pastor Lane Vannatta and Pastor Neil Knudsen officiating.

Burial followed in the Bainville Cemetery.

Sheila Mae Lakey was born November 18, 1941 to Houston and Nellie Lakey in Rudyard, Montana and died peacefully surrounded by her family on September 22, 2016. She passed following her 3rd courageous battle with cancer.

She was born six weeks early and spent her first weeks of life sleeping in a shoebox, staying warm on an open oven door. Throughout her school years, she attended a variety of schools as her family moved around to different oil field jobs. She graduated from Terry Montana High School in 1959.

In 1966 she married Larry Coulston of Bainville, Mont. The couple welcomed three daughters; Lisa, Tina and Lori. The family lived in Oklahoma until 1979, when they moved to Bainville where she lived for the remainder of her life. She worked many years at the Sidney Post Office before retiring in 2007.

She enjoyed travelling, collecting antiques, quilting and playing dominoes. She was active with Bainville Faith Fellowship Church and Kids Club there.

She loved her role as a Mom and Grandma; spending time with her girls and grandkids was a priority for her. She loved watching her grandkids play sports, followed their school activities and encouraged them in whatever they chose to do.

She treasured her trips with her siblings as they shared stories and laughs, explored many antique shops and filled their vehicle with newly found treasures. She loved taking pictures everywhere she went and sharing the memories with friends and family.

She will be missed by all who knew her and warmly remembered as a very caring, giving and generous person. She had great faith and remained courageous throughout her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents Houston and Nellie Lakey; ex-husband Larry Coulston; three nephews Michael, John and Patrick Leonard; and many aunts and uncles.

Sheila Mae Coulston is survived by her children and grandchildren, Lisa, Randy, Riley and Megan Bilstein of Atkinson, Neb., Tina, Gregg and Bryce Erickson of Anchorage, Alaska, and Lori, Haakon, Tanner (Taylor and baby Jax), Haakon Tuff (Paige), Gracie and Waylon Jorgenson of Bainville, Mont.; her brother John Lakey (Kathy) of Twentynine Palms, California; sister Naomi Leonard (Pat) of Anchorage, Alaska; sister Sharon Schwartz (Keith) of Baker, Montana; and brother Jim Lakey (Patty) of Tioga, North Dakota; sister-in-law Barbara Moore of Phoenix, Arizona; and numerous nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held Wednesday, September 28th at Bainville High School. Pastor Lane Vannatta and Pastor Neil Knudsen officiated. Burial followed in the Bainville Cemetery.

Dorothy Goldfuss, 92

A funeral service for Dorothy Jane Goldfuss, age 92 of Atkinson, Neb. was held on Saturday, October 1, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. at St. John’s Lutheran Church in Atkinson with Pastor Wayne Owens officiating.

Music was provided by organist Sharie Flannery and the congregation singing.

Visitation was held from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Friday, September 30, with a prayer service at 7:00 p.m. at St. John’s Lutheran Church.

Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery at Atkinson. Pallbearers were Justin Addison, Mike Schulz, Scott Sybrant, Jeff Sybrant, Chad Peterson and Larry Kliment.

Dorothy Jane was born on February 2, 1924 at Dorsey, Neb. to Edward and Bessie (Sparr) Van Horn and died on September 25, 2016 at Parkside Manor in Stuart, Neb.

She attended school through the 10th grade.

She married Elmer Goldfuss on September 30th 1942 in Ord, Neb. To this union two daughters were born, Carolyn and Lynette.

She was a farmwife always doing chicken chores, hog chores, and helping with harvest. She sold eggs for years and she always had a garden and took great pride in her lawn and flowers. She always enjoyed going for drives around the country.

No one ever left her home without lunch, ice cream with homemade chocolate and chocolate chip cookies.

She and her husband spent many Saturday nights dancing in Carlock, S.D.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Elmer on December 15, 1990; and two sisters Berniece Mathers and Doris Poessnecker Kloppenborg; brothers-in-law Charles and Harold Goldfuss; and a sister-in-law Eve Risor.

Dorothy Jane Goldfuss is survived by her children Carolyn Sybrant and husband Bill Sybrant of Bassett, Neb. and Lynette Addison and husband Larry of Atkinson, Neb.; five grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; a brother Ernie VanHorn and his wife Jane of Newport, Neb.; sisters-in-law Betty Goldfuss of Atkinson, Neb. and Edith Murphy and her husband Frank of Stuart, Neb.; a brother-in-law Leonard Goldfuss and his wife Mavis of O’Neill, Neb.; and many nieces, nephews, and friends.

Seger Funeral Home of Atkinson is in charge of arrangements.

Burwell gets win over West Holt in afternoon game

By Coach Steve Neptune

The Huskies dropped a tough one this past Friday afternoon to the Longhorns of Burwell.

The contest was close through out as in the middle of the third quarter the Huskies took the lead at 18-13, then Burwell came back with a scoring drive of their own and never looked back.

After we took the lead we held them on three and out and we were driving again and I made a mistake and called a play that had worked earlier in the game and we missed it. That seemed to take the wind out of us a little as the kids were playing well at that point.

I was really proud of our effort it was a game we should have won, but now we move on to Chambers-Wheeler Central-Ewing.

They are a really good team with an excellent running back, we will have to gang tackle him and play outstanding defense.

The game is at Bartlett starting at 7:00.

Conference to focus on permaculture

Women in agriculture are invited to the 2016 Women, Food and Agriculture Network annual conference Friday and Saturday, Nov. 4 and 5, at Lied Lodge and Conference Center in Nebraska City. The theme for this year's conference is Women and Permaculture: Making a Living in Harmony with the Land.

The conference is expected to draw 150 to 200 women from across the Midwest for workshops, field tours, networking, and meals featuring locally grown food. Keynote speaker is Karyn Olson-Ramanujan, who began studying permaculture in 1997 and is a lead permaculture teacher and founding board member for the Finger Lakes (NY) Permaculture Institute. She also teaches sustainability-related courses at Ithaca College and is dedicated to supporting women and other historically marginalized populations in their vital roles as leaders.

Friday field tours will visit women-owned farms near Lincoln, urban agriculture projects in Omaha, and the Arbor Day farm and Kimmel Orchard in Nebraska City. Friday on-site intensives will focus on Permaculture and Eco-Feminism. Friday evening options include a wine and cider tasting, local food tasting, and screening and discussion of the permaculture film "Inhabit." Nine Saturday workshops will cover production, marketing, conservation, and advocacy topics. Early registration deadline is midnight, Oct. 13.

Visit www.wfan.org/2016-wfan-annual-conference/ or contact Leigh Adcock at conference@wfan.org or 515 450 3591 for more info. Limited exhibitor spaces and some scholarships are available.

Women, Food and Agriculture Network is a non-profit, educational organization formed in 1997 to provide networking, education, and leadership development opportunities to women involved in all aspects of sustainable agriculture.

Stuart Cross Country results reported

By Coach Travis Ludwig

The Stuart Cross Country runners participated in the 3rd Annual Creighton Cross Country Meet on September 22nd. This meet features athletes from Boyd County, Creighton, Niobrara-Verdigre, CWC, Osmond, Battle Creek and Stuart.

In the girls' race, Kira Dickau finished as the individual runner-up with a time of 22:17. This was the second time this season that Kira has earned a 2nd place medal.

Ariel Larsen also earned a medal, finishing 13th with a time of 29:35. Breanna Fahrenholz narrowly missed a medal, as she finished in 16th with a 5K time of 40:24.

In the boys' race, Coltin Schroder placed 18th with a time of 21:51.

All the runners competed hard and ran a good race.

West Holt Meet

The Cross Country runners of Stuart were in action at the Atkinson-Stuart Country Club on September 30th, as they participated in the West Holt Invite.

This meet has grown a lot in recent years and is one of the toughest meets of the season to earn a medal at. This year 21 schools competed.

Teams in competition at the meet included: Ainsworth, Boyd County, Burwell, Sandhills-Thedford, O'Neill, Boone Central, Niobrara-Verdigre, West Holt, Neligh-Oakdale, North Central, St. Edward, Twin Loup, Elkhorn Valley, and Cody-Kilgore, Boone Central, Arcadia Loup City, Bloomfield, Creighton, Ord, and Stuart.

In the girls' 5K race, Kira Dickau placed 9th with time of time of 21:58. Ariel Larsen placed 53rd with a time of 26:59.

Breanna Fahrenholz completed the 5K course in 34:31.

In the boys' race, Coltin Schroder ended the race in 21:15, earning 53rd. Well over 100 boys competed in the boys' race.

The next action for the Broncos is at Neligh on October 7th for the Niobrara Valley Conference Meet.

The girls' race will begin at 4:00 p.m., with the boys' race to follow.

Nebraskans push for increased commitment to renewable energy in hearing

By Nick Gebhart,
Nebraska News Service

LINCOLN--Sens. Ken Haar of Malcolm and Tyson Larson of O'Neill heard testimony Wednesday from leaders from around the state calling for a response to the growing threat of climate change and an increase in energy from renewable resources.

Power in Nebraska is entirely public, controlled by public power districts like Omaha Public Power District, Nebraska Public Power District and Lincoln Electric System.

"Public power is the shining star of Nebraska's economy," Michael Shonka of Nebraskans For Solar at the legislative hearing.

The efforts of the public power companies were praised by several who testified. LES in particular generates more than half its power from renewable sources, while OPPD has committed to generating more than 30 percent from renewable sources.

Shonka, among others, called for power companies, lawmakers and all Nebraskans to make a greater push toward renewable energy sources.

Graham Christensen of GC Resolve, a Nebraska company that supports renewable resource development especially in rural areas, said renewable energy should become a "new crop" for rural Nebraskans.

"The impact of technology has always substantially changed the way we farm," said John Hansen of the Nebraska Farmers Union.

"We can be farming the sun," Haar said.

Larson also said embracing renewable energy will lead to economic development in rural areas of the state.

Several people testified that the effects of pollution are already hurting farmers and rural communities. Duane Hovorka of the Nebraska Wildlife Federation said pollution is a burden on the economy because it hurts crops and harms human health.

"I can see what the future should be like in Nebraska," Hovorka said. "And we have to do more to reach that."

A concern raised by several witnesses that could affect renewable energy is the decentralization of the electrical grid.

According to the testimony from Craig Moody of the Verdis Group, an environmental consulting firm in Omaha, the electrical grid is centralized because most of the power comes from a small number of large-scale facilities, mainly coal power plants. Rapid decentralization of the power grid could lead to issues that hinder the development of renewable energy sources.

"The grid is not currently built to handle decentralized power," Moody said.

Moody suggested new battery technologies could make it possible to become less dependent on the grid.

Shonka said battery technology could eventually make it possible to completely disconnect from the nation's power grid, but he also said the grid is too important for Nebraskans to get abandon it completely.

A group of students and faculty from Omaha North High School were at the hearing and a student, Gabriel Runyon, testified.

Runyon said committing to renewable resources and stopping the effects of climate change were important to his generation.

Haar thanked him for testifying, and said that more young people should speak out, because elected officials would listen.

Sattler decorates cakes

By Lorraine Lieswald,
Atkinson Graphic reporter

Jen Sattler turned her high school dream of drawing for Disney into drawing Disney characters on special occasion cakes.

Today, she owns and operates Jenny's Cake Shop. The licensed bakery is located in the basement of the family's home in Stuart, and specializes in cakes, cookies, cupcakes, and lots more.

"On my daughter's first birthday I wanted a special cake for her and I couldn't afford it so I decided to make one myself," Jen explained how she became a cake baker and decorator. "I realized then I was using the cake for canvas and I loved it."

Soon the young mother, who also operated Jenny's Day Care, was getting specialty cake orders. As her small business grew, she realized she needed to improve her baking conditions.

With the help of her husband, Chris, a carpenter on the Steve Kohle Construction crew, the couple designed and built a commercial kitchen in their basement.

"We couldn't afford a commercial dishwasher and we really didn't have the space, so I hand wash all the dishes in very hot water before they are double rinsed in a three part sink. I'm a neat freak so my small kitchen is

Fort Hartsuff to host Jesse James talk

Fort Hartsuff SHP to host fundraiser and Jesse James presentation Oct. 9

Enjoy a buffalo stew dinner and presentation about Confederate guerilla Jesse James at Fort Hartsuff State Historical Park on Oct. 9.

Humanities Nebraska speaker Jeff Barnes will present "A Bad Man in a Better Place: Jesse James in Nebraska" at 3 p.m. This presentation is free and open to the public.

The talk will be followed by a buffalo stew dinner in the enlisted men's barracks. The dinner is by ticket only. Tickets are $15 each. Purchase your tickets for this meal by calling Fort Hartsuff at 308-346-4715. Profits will be used to help sponsor events at the fort in 2017.

always immaculate."

That's even when she is baking and decorating cakes in mass. Last spring, she filled orders for 42 graduation cakes.

"I bake the cakes and then freeze them. This makes them much easier to decorate."

While fondant (a marshmallow icing) is a popular frosting for cake decorating, Sattler said she prefers decorating with a buttercream frosting she makes which has the texture of fondant.

Her cake customers have been from Valentine to Lincoln and Gregory, S.D. to Stanton and Norfolk.

Orders come in spurts, she said, but as her clientele has grown she realizes it is time to close her daycare and concentrate on a full time baking and decorating career.

After 22 years of operating Jenny's Day Care, this year will be her last.

"I started the day care right after getting an Associate Degree in Early Childhood Development from Northeast."

She and her husband Chris have three children, Samantha - a junior at Wayne State, and Ethan and Cameron - students in Stuart Public School.

Baking, decorating cakes, day care and following their children's activities make up the family days. They worship at St. Boniface Catholic Church.

The 2016 West Holt Cross Country Invite saw 174 high school runners complete the 5,000 meter course between the two races.

The boys' side had 102 competitors to 72 for the girls.

The athletes had an outstanding day to run and the fans were treated so some very good races.

Alyssa Reiman was our lone Lady Husky medalist on the day. Her time of 22:54 earned her the 15th place medal.

Naomi Troy took over the number two spot for the girls' team as she ran 24:10 to finish in 27th place.

Lindee Wentworth, Ashley Larby, and Jayden Reiman finished 35th (24:35), 36th (24:35.2), and 37th (24:51) respectively.

Emma Laible finished in 26 minutes flat to place 45th.

Ben Thiele cracked the top ten mark finishing in 9th place with a time of 18:25.

Brandon Heller finished just seven seconds away from earning a medal as his time of 19:11 was good enough for 23rd.

Dennis McDermott ran 20:09 to finish in 38th.

Brent Lemmer finished in 64th place with his time of 21:51, and Seth Miller finished in 89th with a time of 24:02.

West Holt JH Cross Country team competes at home

By Coach Mary Flannery

of 8:06.

The West Holt Junior High Cross Country Team competed at home in the West Holt Invitational on Thursday, September 29, 2016.

It was a competitive meet with 42 girl and 68 boy runners. The course was 1800 meters. Eighteen different schools had junior high runners vying for the top ten medals in each race.

Capturing the energy that comes from running at home, all of the returning West Holt 8th graders made improvements over last year's times.

Just out of the medals, Brianna Rentschler led the Husky girls with her 13th place finish in a time of 7:43.

Sadie Jarecke finished in 28th in a time of 8:28. Madison Tunender was just one place behind, with her 8:40 race. Brianna Ivey rounded out the Husky girls in 36th place.

Aaron Kraus showed his determination in a tough race. He earned his 7th place medal in a time of 6:32.

Joseph Albrecht ran one of his best races and finished 36 with a 7:26. Just ten seconds back was Jackson Butterfield finishing in 41st. Hayden Davies ran a solid race finishing with a time

I was very pleased with times from this meet. The kids faced some strong schools and competed well.

The West Holt Junior High Huskies will finish off their season at the NVC meet in Neligh. The meet starts at 4:00 on October 7, 2016.
