Questions to ask your students before, during, and after the story:

1. A community is a group of people who share something, such as living close by or doing the same activity. People who belong to a community care for one another and work together to accomplish their goals.
2. Which groups or communities do you belong to?
3. In the story what communities do the students say they are a part of?
4. How do we show other people in our community that we care about them?
5. What is something we can do in our community right now to help others?
