

Dear Parents and 2nd Graders,

I hope you are all well and safe. I miss you all but have a couple of activities for you for next week.

1. Cut out the phrases and put around the house. Find them and read them. This is a fun way to review the sight words.
2. There is a website that has about a 15 minute video about reading. There is a video for 5 days. Each week is a different topic.

Website is: smekenseducation.com. Please choose “Free Video Lessons.” Then scroll down the page and find Grade 2-3. The topic is “Series 1: Readers Have Different Voices.” Watch each day and if you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to ask.

Stay safe and well.
