

Rangers of the 3rd Quarter

Laina Lindell is Ranger of the Quarter for the 3rd quarter! Laina is a kind, hard working and self-motivated student! When Laina started kindergarten, she was shy and would rather listen to her friends discuss learning concepts, now Laina leads conversations, helps her friends when they are struggling understanding, and is an overall leader in the classroom! Laina is always full of smiles and laughter and is/was and absolute shining light in our classroom! Congratulations Laina, you have worked hard for this award and Dufur could not be more proud of you!

Mrs. Flores chose Meliny Filbin for Ranger of the Quarter. Meliny is a hard worker. She takes her time with her work so that it's her best. She has mastered her addition facts 0-5 and has almost mastered subtraction as well! Meliny reads at a beginning 1st grade level, knows over 100 High Frequency words, and can write a short paragraph. Meliny is a good friend to others. She is kind, considerate, and helps her classmates (and me!) when they need something. Meliny is fearless when it comes for standing up for what is right and I'm so proud to be her teacher this year!

The 1st grade student of the quarter is Brody Thomas. Brody has the biggest heart and is such a sweet, caring classmate. We have been focusing on Kindness in our class, and Brody is the epitome of the word. He has also been working hard in all reading, writing and all areas. He is such an amazing kid, full of integrity and happiness, and a pleasure to have in class everyday.

Ruthie Fain is Mrs. Kelly's student of the third quarter. Ruthie is a great listener and participates often. She uses her time well, completes her work, and her work is always high quality. Ruthie gets along well with others and is always willing to help a fellow student who needs help. She comes to school excited to learn and see her friends.

The 2nd grade Ranger of the quarter is Vaimana Hanks. I can't say enough great things about Vai! She is a super-hard working student and looks for opportunities to do extra work in class and in her daily reading homework. She also takes her time to produce quality work! Vai is an awesome rule-follower and a great role model to her peers. She is also a very kind friend and thinks of others before herself! We're blessed to have Vai in our classroom!

Chelsea Kent is the 3rd Grade Student of the Quarter! Chelsea follows our 3rd Grade Standards of making good choices, following directions, and showing respect. By doing so, she is a great role model for her peers and others throughout the school. She is a student who always completes her homework and in-class tasks on time. When tasks are complete, it is quite common for her to seek out more ways to challenge her. Additionally, I appreciate Chelsea's easy-going nature as well as her ability to change plans when needed. She also gives her best effort every time and sees all situations as opportunities to learn and grow. Another reason why Chelsea stands out is her positivity! She is the biggest cheerleader for herself and classmates. Her kindness, encouragement, and desire to help others add so much to our classroom. Awesome job, Chelsea!

4th grade student of the quarter goes to Geelah Clark. Geelah is a super improver student that is always striving to do the right thing. She is always so positive and tries her best 100% of the time. She is a good friend to everyone in class with a smile on her face and someone her peers and I can count on for integrity and honesty. She is one of the biggest supporters in our classroom, always cheering kids on with her good attitude and sportsmanship.

Olivia Prado is always working hard to keep on top of her work and is asking questions that go beyond the expectations. She is a pioneer in this technology switch and is helping others as she navigates through all of this new information. While she continues to show her courageousness through asking questions and being a constant help in this global time of crisis, she offers assurance that everything will be okay and that together as a class, we can do anything we set our minds too. She has a positive outlook and is a staple in our classroom, both online and offline. Thank you Olivia for your hard work and continuing perseverance to perfection!

The mid-level teachers have chosen Kaylee Wiles as our 6th grade 3rd quarter Ranger of the Quarter. Kaylee is a hard-working, conscientious student who strives to do quality work each and every day. If she is gone, she immediately asks for her assignments upon her return. Kaylee advocates for herself by asking clarifying questions and never settles for less than her best. We appreciate Kaylee's kind spirit and her ability to avoid conflict with her peers. She is respectful to staff and makes excellent choices with her behavior. Way to go, Kaylee!

The Mid-Level teachers are thrilled to announce Shyanne Loomis as the 7th grade student of the quarter. Enough can't be said about Shyanne and all her amazing efforts in the classroom. She is attentive, disciplined, creative, always gives her best effort, and never has missing work. Not only that, she is always pleasant and respectful to the staff and her peers showing the true character traits of a Ranger. We really appreciate everything you do Shyanne and we are so proud of you.

Hayley Peterson has been chosen by the mid-level teachers as 8th grade's Ranger of the Quarter for the 3rd quarter. Hayley is kind and respectful to students and staff alike. She produces quality work and ensures that it is neat, tidy, and turned in on time. Not only does Hayley participate in fall, winter, and spring sports here at Dufur School, she is also very busy outside of school with her participation in dance, 4-H, and club volleyball. This busy schedule doesn't prevent Hayley from doing her best at school each and every day. Keep it up, Hayley!

Juliet Ancheta quietly moves the world. You won't hear it, and if your not careful you will wont see it, but under her quiet tranquil surface she is thinking things through and getting great things done. Never underestimate her.

The sophomore student of the quarter is a responsible, ridiculously hardworking, and a very respectful individual. They take their work seriously and have really pushed themselves to do the best that they can. This student has made leaps and bounds from where they were, even at the beginning of the year, in participation level, overall effort and involvement, and in the development of their leadership skills. They are more than deserving of this recognition, so let's give a big round of applause to your Spring Sophomore of the Quarter, Maddie Dollarhide! Congratulations!

The high school teachers have selected Caleb Olson as our junior student of the 3rd quarter. Caleb is a student that shows up each day with a great attitude and a readiness to get the job done! He is helpful to all those around him, whether he is helping his peers or his teachers, he will always lend a hand to help out. Caleb is friendly and easy going, and always has a smile on his face, his sense of humor is quick and funny, and we love to hear him laugh. Caleb is also doing a great job of keeping his grades up and passing. Congratulations to Caleb as the junior student of the 3rd quarter.

The high school teachers have selected Asa Farrell as our senior student of the 3rd quarter. Asa comes to school everyday with a smile on his face and a great attitude. He always does what he needs to do and is well on his way to graduating and making his mark on the world. Asa will always be successful because of his ability to get along with everyone, thinking outside the box, and being positive in all that he does. Thank you Asa for making each class that we teach you in, a pleasure. Good luck and congratulations!
