

Surviving Distance Learning #2

---

Some tips for parents and families

Dr. Andrew Kahn

Set your Priorities!

---

- Food, safety, and security are most important and place school activities further down the list.
- Every family has different situations and needs.
- Don't feel pressured by what others may or may not do.
- Engagement is SUCCESS!!!

What School Wants You to Know!

---

- They don't expect or desire you to homeschool your child.
- They want you to know they care and miss your child.
- They don't believe your only responsibility is to complete school work with your child.
- We are here to help you. If something isn't working ask for help.

Common Questions

- Do I need to do 2 hours of work time every day?
- Does all this work need to be completed (if you receive packets at home)?
- How can I show what they've done if it isn't written down?
- How do I keep up with all the assignments they receive?

Common Questions

- What if my child can't do a task?
- My child is overwhelmed by the packet or assignment and refuses to work, what do I do?
- How can my child move up a grade next year if they aren't doing new learning?
