South Seneca Central School

Administrators appointed

The name of the former Ovid-Interlaken Central School District will be the South Seneca Central School. This was one of the four names submitted by the Ovid and Interlaken Student Councils to the Board of Education for their approval at their meeting held in Interlaken Monday evening. The colors for the school and the mascot will be selected by the joint Student Councils.

The Board of Education made the following administration appointments at this meeting:

Donald Beaman, Administrative Asst.; Douglas VanBenschoten, Secondary Principal-Int.; Donald Lueder, Secondary Principal-Ovid; Ira McGonigal, Elementary Principal-Int.; James Vangalio, Elementary Principal-Ovid; Henry Morris, School District Clerk and Mrs. Arlene Ellis, Asst. School District Clerk.

Mrs. Marion Schneider, Darwin Smith, and Fred Swick, new Board Members, accompanied by Maurice L. Patterson, Acting District Principal, will attend the New York State Education Dept.'s workshop for new board members in Albany on Saturday, Aug. 3.

The Board of Education passed a resolution to hold the Annual Meeting on Tuesday, July 9, at the Interlaken Central School auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

The non-teaching salary schedules were discussed and some tentative schedules were proposed and adopted. Further meetings will be held on employee salaries and policies.

A special meeting will be held Thursday evening, June 20, at the Ovid Central School at which time the tentative budget for 1968-69 will be discussed.

Mr. Morris and Mr. Patterson will be attending the state aid workshop to be held in Binghamton, June 20, sponsored by the State Education Department.

Board Members present at this meeting were: Darwin Smith, President; Charles Wickes, V-P; Robert Akins, Mrs. Marion Schneider, Robert Dickerson, Fred Swick, and Stanley VanVleet.
