THESE HAPPY
Returning to school in the fall

We saw so many familiar sights that we had so recently left behind for a summer’s rest. The excitement of a new year was even more exciting for a new group of people that joined us in our search for education.

Even in the start of a new year we took precious moments to stop and wonder, where would this year take us and who would we meet.
The life of a student

Days of laughter and nights of song. Not all books and study.

Study in its place; parties, competition all in their places.
This is the joyful life

Dress up clothes or sweaters and jeans... formality or breezy informality... a shout or a tender whisper... quizzes, term papers, book reports, exams.

This is the colorful pattern that completes the fabric of growing up. For Paul and Lynette, being selected Mr. and Miss BCHS was another part of this pattern.
Giving their best for the Wildcats

A variety of people came together to involve themselves in sports that everyone enjoyed. Whether in victory or defeat our spirit was always behind the teams that represented us.

No matter what the score or what the sport, the Wildcats were always trying their best.
Is it really worth it?

Long tired hours were spent on many projects and many tests. Many flocked to the library hoping to see someone to talk to in order to pass a little time before studying would be a must.
Going to class day by day

We often wondered why we were here. Looking toward the future we journeyed on, learning and building as we went.

For Debbie, Susie, Mary, Susy, Lena, Carolyn, and Anita, the National Honor Society there was a purpose and a reason.
Our student leaders worked for us

They furnished the guidance we needed and informed us of our educational needs for the betterment of student life. Student officers carefully worked with administration and students to provide a working bond.

Our faculty leaders provided an education and taught us as best they could.
This is the serious life

Beneath the lightness and laughter of student days is the seriousness of decision.

It’s all about hours, days, months, and years to prepare. It’s all about Boise City High School and the people that make it what it is. It’s the Happy-sad beginning of a new life.

Mrs. Tandy Retires After 13 Years

Teaching arts and crafts was a part of Mrs. Tandy's busy schedule. All the crafts, including the Oklahoma flag, were made by the Special Education class.

We take this means to say farewell to a fine and dedicated teacher.

The time has flown by so quickly and it is already the close of the 1971-72 school year. During this short time, we have all created many memories of happy, sad, good, and bad occasions, which is all a part of growing into adulthood. I hope that the 1972 WILDCAT will help you remember each cherished memory.

The entire annual staff has worked hard to create this annual and we all hope you will enjoy looking through these pages as much as we have enjoyed putting it together. Without the help of many individuals, this annual would not be possible. I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the following persons:

A very special thanks to Mrs. Doris Smith, our annual advisor, for all the guidance she gave us each time we were in need of it. She always had a valuable idea to help us through the rough spots.

Our gratitude to Henington Publishing Company and Mr. Murray Sealey, our annual representative. Also to Mr. R.O. Meador, a proficient photographer, who did a great job of taking pictures.

A great deal of appreciation goes to Anita McCune, my assistant editor, who was more than willing to help me in every way.

A sincere thanks to Gary Compton and Bob Riddle for taking pictures for us on special occasions. A special thanks to Debbie Thrall for doing such a good job in taking pictures.

To the faculty and administration and to the students of BCHS a warm thanks for your cooperation. Some days were busy and disorganized, but each of you tried to make things easier for us, which was helpful.

We hope that this past year has held for you many HAPPY DAYS, and that the '72 WILDCAT will reflect your memories of Boise City High School forever.

Happy is he who at the end of the year has something beautiful to remember from his yesterdays, and something good to hope for from his tomorrow; who has the courage to attempt great things all by himself, and the wisdom to ask help; who has a friend who wants to copy him; who gives thanks with a greatful heart for present blessings, and is already at work with plans for the New Year.
THANK YOU

Once again Boise City High School would like to express our appreciation to the business establishments and people who have supported us. Without your help our efforts would not have been successful. Thank you so much for your advertising.

WILDCAT Staff
As the year ended and some of us departed we felt combined feelings of happiness and sadness. We remembered the things we would never do again. Talking with friends, putting books aside to enjoy a moment of play, and walks to class all now belong to the past. But each of them took with us in our memories and remembered the expressions of our school days at B.C.H.S. We left for the future which we had been prepared for and took our place in the world.
