

Teacher:

Class:

Period:

Floral Design Choice Board

Directions: Choose any 5 (ONLY 4 FOR ADV FLORAL) assignments to complete for credit. Please do not stress about this! You have until the end of the semester to finish! As long as you plan for one assignment per week you will be finished by the end of May. I prefer assignments be turned into Google Classroom, but they do not have to all be turned in at the same time.

Flower Social Media Account Choose a plant from the list and create an account (on paper or on the computer) which resembles the profile of a social media site such as Facebook, Instagram, or Twitter. The profile page should include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. The name of the plantB. Contact information such as where the plant grows best or is most commonly found.C. Interests, such as requirements for growthD. Friends, such as people who use the plant most frequently (florists or landscape designers)E. Groups, such as what the plant is classified as (line or filler flower, potted plant, etc.)F. Pictures of different variations of the plantG. Any other creative plant info. <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Native Passion Vine-Texas Pokeweed-Yellow Prickly Cactus-American Beautyberry-Dogwood-Gardenia-Azalea	Flower Farm Watch the Flower Farm Video, and answer the response questions below. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Name of video watched• Video length• What type of farm was being toured• Give a summary of the video in 5-6 sentences• List 2 things you learned from this video.	Flowers as Food? Flowers are widely used in our society as they are an important part for the ambience of any occasion including weddings, birthdays, parties or any other events in life. Just as flowers can be added to designs they can also be used in cooking and baking. Edible flowers can be used to add a splash of color to all kinds of food including salads, desserts, and some drinks. A Single petal of leaf that is carefully placed or incorporated into a recipe can really enhance a meal. Use the following Flowers as Food Worksheet to answer questions about edible flowers/ greenery.	Recycled T-Shirt Crochet Rug Use the following how-to Crochet Rug Worksheet to complete this fun recycling art project. If you are having trouble there are tons of how-to videos and articles on "recycled t-shirts" that are all on Google, Pinterest, YouTube, or other blogs. Have fun with this, and send a finished or attempted picture to the assignment on Google Classroom.
---	---	---	---

Teacher:

Class:

Period:

Floral Design Choice Board

Directions: Choose any 5 (ONLY 4 FOR ADV FLORAL) assignments to complete for credit. Please do not stress about this! You have until the end of the semester to finish! As long as you plan for one assignment per week you will be finished by the end of May. I prefer assignments be turned into Google Classroom, but they do not have to all be turned in at the same time.

Dahlia Book Wreath Here is another fun project using things around the house. This Dahlia Book Wreath Worksheet will explain the steps to make this project. Don't worry- it includes pictures for visual aids. Basically, you will be using about 100 or so pages of a book/ magazine, hot glue (or any glue), and a piece of cardboard (or anything for a background). Then you will cut the pages out of the book, roll them to create "petals", then glue in a circular pattern until the finished product looks like a full dahlia flower. Please refer to the worksheet for details. Also, please ask permission before you tear up a book!! Submit finished project picture to the Google Classroom assignment.	Natural Arrangement Create your own natural arrangement using NATURAL things around your house. This can be in a vase, mason jar, fancy cup, hand tied bouquet, wreath, or any other creative way you decide. Some natural things you can choose from can include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">-pinecones-grass-clover/ thistle-wildflowers-weeds-pieces of wood-mushrooms-leaves-rocks-wooden bird houses (unoccupied)-vines-baskets-vegetables-seeds	Chef's Corner Find a favorite recipe that uses flowers or greenery as spices,, cook the dish (if you can), or draw a picture (with color) of what the finished dish would look like plated. Interview a friend/ family member about how they like the dish, and what was their favorite part (or ingredient/ spice). Include which ingredients were flowers/ greenery specifically in the food review.. TIP: You can write out a few questions to ask before the interview, then write their answers down as you ask them, or record the interview if you want. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ask meaningful questions!• Submit picture and food review together.	You're the Boss High school students need to have a resume to prepare for the future. Resumes tell future employers about your skills, strengths, education level, and experiences. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Using the following FFA Resume worksheet, you will evaluate two resumes for a specific job posting to determine the perfect candidate! Thought question: Would having to make hiring decisions based on a single piece of resume paper be challenging? Why/ why not?
---	--	---	--