* Some partner schools are not in session on these days. Students are expected to attend SRTC if their high school provides transportation.

** Last days at each site will be determined once the number of storm days used is determined and final exam schedules at all partner schools are finalized.

Please note that transportation to SRTC is usually provided to students at the regularly scheduled times on late arrival days, early release days and during mid-term and final exams. If the partner school provides transportation, students will be expected to attend SRTC. The Sanford School Department holds an Early Release Day each Wednesday. SRTC students are dismissed at the usual times on these days.
