

Instrument Returns

a guide for returning your school instrument

Before bringing your instrument back:

- remember to empty all personal belongings, including reeds, cloths, pencils, and music
 - Please remember to check case pockets and empty any trash
- Please tape a piece of paper to the OUTSIDE of the case with first and last name of student, homeroom teacher, and school name

When dropping off instruments, please observe the following safety guidelines:

- Make sure your instrument case is clearly labeled with school name, student name, and student's homeroom teacher
 - If your vehicle has a trunk, please place the instrument in the trunk
 - Using the student drop off lane, pull up and remain in your car
 - A school employee will approach your vehicle to collect the instrument
- Open your trunk for the employee to collect your instrument, or pass the case from inside your car if necessary
