DAILY WORK SCHEDULE

May 5 thru May 14 2020

A Note from Your Teacher

Hello student and parents:

Please find in this packet a schedule of daily work for the month of May. We are now down to the last two weeks of school! Many of you have worked well under these strange circumstances – it has been hard for all of us – so I am proud of your regular attendance at our zoom meetings and how you have kept up with the work load. We are nearly done and you will be able to enjoy a true break!

Mrs. Splittgerber and I intend for the first week of May to be lighter work-wise. We will focus on completing any assignments that you didn't get done and on doing corrections on any work that needs it. For Mr. Splitt, we will have one last week of Latin, we will finish our reading of Cyrano DeBergerac, and will talk about graduation boards and speeches.

Also, with this homework packet, you will receive this year's yearbook! Enjoy!

*God bless,
Mr. & Mrs. Splittgerber*

TUESDAY: May 5 (Mrs. Splitt ZOOM @ 11 a.m.)

LATIN	Red: Lesson 14: p.83/84 Gold: Unit I Review p.44/45

MUSIC	Zion Students and Parents, It has been a wonderful year at Zion! I am so thankful for Zion Lutheran School and the home many of us find here. Hans Christian Andersen says one of my favorite quotes best, “When words fail, Music Speaks”. We have certainly spoken this year!

In November we saluted our Veterans, in December we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior, and in March we honored our Grandparents with instruments and voices! While we would have loved to end the year with the Spring Musical, we will still be celebrating the coming of summer with music. I hope this “Spring Concert” preparation and performance brings joy to your home! I would like to encourage siblings and even parents to participate and cooperate as a family.

We are almost at the curtain call! We can do it!

Sincerely,

*Mrs. Elaine Arehart
