

High School Students: What Is Your Career Pathway?

Video Contest

Use your creative mind and time at home to tell us about a future job you might like and maybe win some great prizes!

Judges will be local employers and community members.

Prizes include: $100 gift card; I-Pad or Galaxy Tablet, laptop computer and more!

The Challenge:

Create a short video about a job/career you are considering that may help other students when considering their career pathways. Be creative!

The Outcome:

Each video must be between 45 and 90 seconds long, and must have information on:

- What the job does
- How much the average salary is for that job
- What kind of education is required for that job
- Why you might want to make that your career

Brought to you by the Valencia County
Partnership for a Work Ready
Community

Deadline is MAY 31, 2020

For questions about this contest, please e-mail: cloconner@llschools.net or teri.wimborne@uwcnm.org

The WHY

The Valencia County Partnership for a Work Ready Community is working to develop a library of student videos that can help to inform other students of possible career pathways.

Submission Directions

- Videos may be created on phones or with video cameras
- Each video should be between 45 and 90 seconds long
- Videos may have music, animation, graphs, charts, photos or anything you'd like to make your point, but G rated only will be accepted.
- Videos will be shared with community members and employers as well as with other students and teachers.
- Videos will be judged on creativity, accuracy and content
- Winners will be announced on or before June 30, 2020.
- When complete, fill out the Google Form at (you will also be asked to upload your video or a YouTube link to your video at the end of the form):

VCVideoContest