Demonstrating Competency/Proficiency in Social Studies

The district will manage the assessment process so that students seeking competency-based credit can demonstrate competency/proficiency in social studies skills.

A student may recover (.5) to (1) social studies credit if the student meets standard on another approved state alternative that meets the graduation requirement.

Additionally, a student may obtain (.5) to (1) Social Studies credit for passing a district created assessment that is aligned to the state learning standards, such as a portfolio of student work. Students do not need to have attempted and failed a course before being eligible for this option.
