Before Reading:

- Looking at the title, cover and illustrations/pictures, what do you think will happen in this book? What makes you think that?
- What characters do you think might be in the book?
- Do you think there will be a problem in the story? Why?
- What do you already know about the topic of this book?

- Do you think it will be like any other book you've read? If so, which one, and how do you think it will be similar?

During Reading:

- When you read, what pictures did you see in your head? How did you imagine it looked like?
- What are you wondering about as you read? What questions do you have?
- Think about the predictions you made before reading; do you still think the story will go that way? Why or why not? How do you think it will go now?
- Make a list of words you do not know. Look for context clues to find the meanings of the words.

After Reading:

- Why is the title a good title for the book/story? If you had to give it a different title, what would be another good title for it?
- Were your predictions correct? Where did you have to fix your prediction as you read?
- If there was a problem, did it get solved? How did the character try to solve the problem?
- What happened because of the problem?
- What was the author's message?
- Look at the way the author ended the book. Do you think this is a good way to end? Why or why not?
- Did any of the characters change through the story? Who changed, and how did they change?
- Why do you think the author wrote this? To persuade, inform, or entertain? Why do you think that?
- What is the most important point that the author is trying to make in his/her writing?
- What was your favorite part? Why?
- If you could change one part, what would you change?
- If you could ask the author a question, what would you ask?
- Can you retell the story in sequence order (use your fingers and sequence words: first, second, then, next, etc.)?
- Is there a character in the story that reminds you of someone you know? If so, who are they like, and why do you think that?
- Does this book remind you of another book you know? Does it remind you of something you've experienced in real life?
