3. Flu clinic hosted by Scott's Pharmacy on 10/21/19
4. Stop the Bleed and Hospital Disaster Drill - Brittany Emerson
5. Family Groups in Junior High - Julie Cole
6. Blessings in a Backpack - Mrs. Nichols
7. Upcoming meeting dates

Action Items:

1. Approval of previous minutes
2. Lauren Maynard, not present but still attending and wants to stay updated
3. New members included:
 - a. Mr. Mason replacing Mrs. Brown as administrative position
 - b. Julie Cole replacing Mrs. Colven as counselor
 - c. Kaiti Kelley replacing Dalton Brandon as Secretary
4. Family groups in Junior High: Mrs. Ballard and Coach Shack put together Family groups where students are divided among teachers to meet during pep rally times. Statistics show suicide drops when a person knows that 1 other person cares. Groups come up with family name, mission statement and theme songs. They speak on topics including: Harmony, attitude of gratitude, thoughts create behavior, and they have written thank you notes. Groups have continued to meet together at different times and appears to be a successful program to keep going throughout the year.
5. Immunization clinic scheduled successful on Aug. 16, 2019. Aurora Concepts accepted all insurances and there was a great turn out. Very convenient for 7th graders and out of state students coming in that needed immunization shots. Plan to do again next year.
6. Scott's Pharmacy Flu Shots was a great turn out, more teachers than the year before.
7. Stop the bleed and Disaster Drill at UT Quitman- Mrs. Emerson updated committee on how the students have been involved this year. Mrs Vander Schaaf updated group that bleed control kits on all campuses, new law teachers will need to be trained.

8. Blessings in backpack- numbers doubled from last year, up to 90 this year. Working on getting additional funding, possibilities from Wood county electric, but their grant can't fund churches. They can't fund schools either. Now taken to the hospital board to get help. This year Mrs. Nichols noticed that these letters were sent to every student, next year it has been decided to send to pre-k and new students. A fellow from Liberty Methodist church approached Mrs. Nichols and said he would take care of the back pack shortage. Update will come at the next meeting.
9. Upcoming meeting dates:
 - a. 12/11/2018
 - b. 2/19/2019
 - c. 5/13/2019
