— most challenging coursework possible

- 1. Admissions requirements are different for each college and university and may vary by the major or program you select.
- 2. To prepare for post high school experiences, take the most rigorous program that you can handle and take additional courses that interest you.
- 3. Points to consider regarding course selection: Don't settle for the minimum if you can do well in more. Take courses that are realistic for your ability. Challenge yourself and create a plan that will keep your options open for the future.
- 4. For college athletics, check the NCAA requirements for coursework, GPA and college entrance exams at www.ncaa.org.

* New Course +Capstone Class ^ Course counts as elective credit Bold type: weighted course (Prerequisites are in parentheses) Courses with low enrollment may not be offered.
