

Dear Melissa,

We are writing this letter to thank you for sending in the poetry entries from your class for our contest, A Celebration of Poets – Summer 2019.

It is such a pleasure to read through so many excellent poems in one packet. Ordinarily about half of the poems sent in are rejected during our preliminary judging. However, from the packet you sent in we accepted all the poems. This is very unusual. The culture poems your class created really impressed our judges here at Creative Communication.

We would like to congratulate you and your teaching efforts. Clearly, your students have a great talent for writing poetry, but the teacher is the one who helps bring that talent to the surface.

Thank you again for your interest in our contest and sharing the talents of your students with others. We look forward to seeing many of your students' poems in print.

We will be notifying the students who were accepted by email, if we have an email address, or by postcard.

If you have any questions, please contact us any time.

Sincerely,

Tiffani Coleman
